

Contents

Preface vii

Acknowledgments ix

Part 1 Case study skills 1

1 Introducing cases 3

What is a case? 3

Why are cases used? 4

How might you meet cases? 5

Where are cases used? 6

Why do you need skills? 6

2 Studying cases 8

How to begin? 8

Gain an overall impression 8

Understand what is required 10

Isolate key information 12

Read for understanding 12

Appraise facts and opinions 14

Cultivate a questioning frame of mind 15

Evaluate case facts 16

3 Identifying and defining problems 18

Classify the information 18

Identify the problems 19

Specify the problems 19

Determine the causes 20

Avoid pitfalls 21

4 Problem solving 24

Set objectives 24

Create and develop alternative approaches 25

Personalise the problem 26

Use deduction, inference and assumption 27

- Predict and evaluate 28
- Make decisions 29
- Implement your strategy 31
- Monitor progress 31
- Deal with change situations 32
- Application of skills 33

- 5 Writing a case analysis paper 35
 - Written presentation 35
 - Detail 36
 - Adopting a role 37
 - Alternative forms 37
 - Answering questions 38
 - Summaries 38
 - Reports 39
 - Order of presentation 39
 - Style 40
 - Final check 41

- 6 Oral presentation 43
 - On your own 43
 - With the group 44
 - Assessment criteria 44
 - Organisation of presentation 45
 - Delivery and poise 45
 - Dress and posture 46
 - Movement and mannerisms 46
 - Answering questions 47
 - Manner towards audience 47

- 7 Illustrating case presentations 48
 - Primary considerations 48
 - Reinforcing written work 48
 - Choose for impact 54
 - Supporting oral presentation 54
 - Disadvantages of visual aids 55
 - Use or not? 56

- 8 Case study examinations 57
 - Practice makes perfect 57
 - Studying alone 57
 - Preparing for the examination 58
 - What are examiners looking for? 59
 - Hints for success 60
 - Planning your time 61
 - Pitfalls to avoid 62

- 9 Do not expect it to be easy 63
Lack of training 63
Studying alone 63
Studying with a group 64
Conflict and compromise 64
Lack of guidance 65
Lack of information 65
- 10 What can you expect to gain? 67
Awareness and familiarisation with problems 67
Analytical skills 68
Decision making skills 68
Clearer thinking 69
Awareness of attitudes 69
Communication skills 69
Interpersonal skills 69
Shared experience 70
In a nutshell 70

Part 2 Case studies 73

- Introduction 75
The meter scheme 77
A question of training 85
Edano Chemical Co Ltd 91
The distorting mirror 94
The Bold House Hotel 97
The Western Sausage Co Ltd 99
Jenkinsons Ltd 102
Wearwell Footwear Ltd 104
Westborough Bus Company 107
Menlath Products 109
Victoria Printing Co Ltd 111
A matter of choice 114
Jamesons Ltd 116
Powa Drill Co Ltd 118
'New Industrial Products' (MW) Ltd (NIP) – II 124
Bek Brothers 128
Strathclyde Holdings Ltd 130
The problem of George Black 139
Square Deal PLC 143
Wessex Computers 145

Appendix Examination techniques – key verbs 147