

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
INTRODUCTION
Figuring Friendship	I
CHAPTER ONE
Contexts for Friendship in Mid-Tang Literary Culture	25
The Discourse of Friendship	29
Historical Patterns	48
Social and Cultural Contexts	61
CHAPTER TWO
Building Networks: Friendship, Patronage, and Celebrity	82
Seeking a Patron: Writing for the zhiji	95
Selling Meng Jiao: Friendship and Patronage	101
Becoming Bai Juyi: Friendship and Celebrity	115
CHAPTER THREE
Responding in Kind: Friendship and Poetic Exchange	133
Mid-Tang Perspectives on Poetic Exchange and Friendship	142
Collaboration and Competition: The Linked Verses of Han Yu and Meng Jiao	159
Contesting the Past: The Nostalgic Exchanges of Bai Juyi and Yuan Zhen	173
CHAPTER FOUR
To Know and Be Known: The Epistemology of Friendship	200
Epistemological Dimensions of Letters to Friends	205
Understanding: Using the Knowledge of Friendship	214
Misunderstanding: Negotiating Criticism and Conflict	239
Coda: In the Absence of Knowledge	256

CHAPTER FIVE

For the Dead and the Living: Performing Friendship after Death	265
Funerary Inscriptions for Friends	273
Offering Texts and the Performance of Friendship	283
Writing the Life and Death of Han Yu	310
CONCLUSION	330
Selected Bibliography	339
Index	357