

CONTENTS

- 9 Acknowledgements
- 11 Uwe Fleckner
HERMIA'S VOYAGE
A Preface
- 15 Isabella Woldt
FAMILY MATTERS
The Great Depression of 1929 and its Consequences for the Warburg Library
- 23 Hanna Vorholt
»DAS WAS ICH ALS JUDE VERTRETE, KANN ICH AUCH IN ENGLAND ODER FRANKREICH SEIN«
A Letter by Gertrud Bing to Hanns Swarzenski of May 1933
- 39 Elizabeth McGrath
DISSEMINATING WARBURGIANISM
The Role of the »Journal of the Warburg and Courtauld Institutes«
- 51 Michael Kauffmann
OXFORD AND THE WARBURG INSTITUTE IN THE EARLY FIFTIES
A Brief Reminiscence

- 53 Jennifer Montagu
»A FAMILY, NOT AN INSTITUTE«
The Warburg Institute in the 1950s
- 65 Sydney Anglo
FROM SOUTH KENSINGTON TO BLOOMSBURY AND BEYOND
The Intellectual Life of the Early Warburg Institute
- 71 Elizabeth Sears
A DIARIST'S VIEW
Roger Hinks on the Warburg Institute »twenty-five years after its settling in London«
- 97 Dorothea McEwan
WHY HISTORIOGRAPHY?
Fritz Saxl's Thoughts on History and Writing History
- 109 Margaret M. McGowan
TOUCHING ON SOMETHING DEEP
Frances A. Yates and the Warburg Institute as a Place of Discovery
- 117 Pablo Schneider
FROM HAMBURG TO LONDON
Edgar Wind: Images and Ideas
- 131 Claudia Wedepohl
CRITICAL DETACHMENT
Ernst Gombrich as Interpreter of Aby Warburg
- 165 Alex Potts
A DIVIDED LEGACY
Ernst Gombrich's English Translation of the German Tradition of Critical Art History

175 John Onians

FRUITFUL INTELLECTUAL EXCHANGES

The Warburg Institute's Impact on Britain and Britain's Impact on the Warburg Institute

187 Arnold Nesselrath

THE AFTERLIFE OF »NACHLEBEN«

The Census of Antique Works of Art and Architecture Known in the Renaissance

201 Notes

248 Picture credits