PREFACE	I
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	III
TABLE OF CONTENTS	V
INTRODUCTION TO PART ONE	1
1.1 Four approaches to Verbal Complementation	1
1.2 A Combined Performance and Competence Study	2
1.3 Background and Goal	5
1.4 Synchronic and Diachronic Comparative Syntax	8
1.5 Theoretical Framework for Describing Surface Structures	9
1.6 Intuition-Oriented Linguistics and Empirically-Oriented Linguistics	13
2. Presentation of Modern Swedish ACI-Constructions
2.1 In Declarative Sentences	15
2.2 In Subordinate Relative Clauses	17
2.3 In Interrogative Sentences	18
3. Classification of ACI-Verbs in Modern Swedish
3.1 An Alphabetic List of ACI-Verbs in Modern Swedish	20
3.2 Semantic Subclassification of ACI-Verbs	21
3.3 Verbs of Perception (Class A)	23
3.4 Performative Verbs and Mental Verbs (Class B)	29
3.5 Instantaneous-Perfective Verbs (Class C)	32
3.6 Stative-Nonperfective Verbs (Class D)	33
3.7 Causative Verbs (Class E)	34
3.8 Reflexive Verbs (Class F)	36
4. The Concept of Syntactic Rule Domain
4.1 The Standard Theory and Level Constraints in Syntax	38
4.2 Level Constraints for Generating Well-Formed Swedish ACI-Constructions	39
4.3 The General Process of Infinitivization in Germanic Languages	41
5. The Subject Raising Rule in Swedish (SE)
5.1 The Verbal Complements of SE ₁ 'see visually'	46
5.1.1 The att and hur -Embeddings Occurring after SE ₁ 'see visually'	50

5.1.2	Syntactic Evidence for Different Underlying Representations of ACI-Constructions and Complementizer Embeddings	52
5.1.3	Semantic Evidence for Different Underlying Representations of ACI-Constructions and Complementizer Embeddings	57
5.2	Subject Raising and Auxiliary Deletion or Aktionsart Neutralization	60
5.3	Nominalized Complements Occurring after SE ₁ 'see visually' and SE ₂ 'realize'	67
5.4	Accusative-with-Gerundive Construction and att-Deletion	68
5.5	The Surface Structures of FÅ SE 'catch sight of'	69
5.5.1	The Categorical Status of Swedish FÅ in FÅ SE 'catch sight of'	69
5.5.2	Comparative Syntactic Evidence for Treating FÅ as an Aspectual Auxiliary	71
5.5.3	The Sentential Complement Structures of FÅ SE 'catch sight of'	75
5.5.4	Semantic Evidence for Treating FÅ ₁ as an Aspectual Auxiliary	75
6.	Results of the Linguistic Performance Study on Verbal Complements Occurring after SE and FA SE
6.1	Aspects of the Productivity of Embedding Rules after SE ₁ 'see visually'	78
6.2	Aspects of the Productivity of Embedding Rules after SE ₂ 'realize, understand'	79
6.3	Aspects of the Productivity of Embedding Rules after HELST SE ₃ 'prefer to see'	80
6.4	Aspects of the Productivity of Embedding Rules after FÅ SE 'catch sight of'	81
7.	The Subject Raising Rule in Swedish (MÅRKA)
7.1	The Verbal Complements of MÅRKA 'notice'	82
7.2	Accusative-with-Predicative Attributes	83
7.2.1	Accusative-with-Past Participle Construction	83
7.2.2	Accusative-with-Predicative Adjective Construction	83
7.3	Nominalizations	84
8.	Results of the Linguistic Performance Study on Verbal Complements Occurring after MÅRKA 'notice'
8.1	The Productivity of Embedding Rules after MÅRKA 'notice'	87

9.	The Subject Raising Rule in Swedish (UPPTÄCKA)
9.1	The Verbal Complements of UPPTÄCKA ₁ 'discover ₁ visually'	88
9.2	The Verbal Complements of UPPTÄCKA ₂ 'discover ₂ cognitively'	94
9.3	The Verbal Complements of UPPTÄCKA ₃ 'make a discovery, find out'	96
10.	Results of the Linguistic Performance Study on Verbal Complements Occurring after UPPTÄCKA 'discover'
10.1	UPPTÄCKA ₁ 'discover ₁ visually'	99
10.2	UPPTÄCKA ₂ 'discover ₂ cognitively'	100
10.3	UPPTÄCKA ₃ 'make a discovery'	100
11.	The Subject Raising Rule in Swedish (OBSERVERA)
11.1	The Verbal Complements of OBSERVERA ₁ 'watch'	101
11.2	The Verbal Complements of OBSERVERA ₂ 'become aware of'	102
12.	Results of the Linguistic Performance Study on Verbal Complements Occurring after OBSERVERA 'observe'
12.1	OBSERVERA ₁ 'watch'	105
12.2	OBSERVERA ₂ 'become aware of'	105
13.	The Subject Raising Rule in Swedish (HÖRA)
13.1	The Verbal Complements of HÖRA ₁ 'hear ₁ auditorily'	106
13.2	A Specific Underlying Representation of ACI-Constructions after HÖRA ₁ 'hear ₁ auditorily'	110
13.3	HÖRA ₁ Occurring with Passivized Idioms	114
13.4	The att and hur -Embeddings Occurring after HÖRA ₂ 'hear ₂ of'	122
13.5	HÖRA ₁ Occurring with Nominalized Complements	127
13.5.1	The Unbalanced or the Balanced View for Describing Nominalizations	127
13.5.2	The Problem of Paraphrases	132
13.5.3	Metaphors as Arguments for a Semanticist Solution of Nominalizations	133
13.6	The Verbal Complements of FÅ HÖRA ₁ 'hear ₁ auditorily' and FÅ HÖRA ₂ 'hear ₂ of, be informed'	134
13.6.1	The Categorical Status of Swedish FÅ in FÅ HÖRA	134
13.6.2	The Sentential Complement Structures of FÅ HÖRA ₁ 'suddenly hear ₁ '	136
13.6.3	The Sentential Complement Structures of FÅ HÖRA ₂ 'hear ₂ of, be told'	138
13.6.4	Metaphorical Usage of FÅ HÖRA ₂ 'hear ₂ of'	139

14.	Results of the Linguistic Performance Study on Verbal Complements Occurring after HÖRA and FA HÖRA
14.1	HÖRA ₁ 'hear ₁ auditorily'	140
14.2	HÖRA ₂ 'hear ₂ of, be told'	141
14.3	FA HÖRA ₁ 'hear ₁ suddenly or unexpectedly'	143
14.4	FA HÖRA ₂ 'hear ₂ of unexpectedly or be unexpectedly told'	144
15.	The Subject Raising Rule in Swedish (KÄNNA)
15.1	The Verbal Complements of KÄNNA ₁ 'feel ₁ tactually'	145
15.2	KÄNNA ₃ 'feel ₃ mentally'	147
15.2.1	Subject Raising and Passive Auxiliary or Copula Deletion	150
15.2.2	Nominalization	151
15.3	KÄNNA ₂ 'smell'	152
15.4	KÄNNA ₄ 'feel ₄ somatically'	154
15.5	FÄ KÄNNA 'feel and smell suddenly and unexpectedly'	158
16.	Results of the Linguistic Performance Study on Verbal Complements Occurring after KÄNNA
16.1	KÄNNA ₁ 'feel ₁ tactually'	160
16.2	KÄNNA ₂ 'smell'	161
16.3	KÄNNA ₃ 'feel ₃ mentally'	161
16.4	KÄNNA ₄ 'feel ₄ somatically'	162
	CONCLUSION OF THE PERFORMANCE STUDY	164
	CONCLUSION OF THE COMPETENCE STUDY	177

PART TWO
	INTRODUCTION TO PART TWO	204
0.	Presentation of ACI-Verbs in Three Germanic Languages	207
1.	Morpho-Syntactic and Semantic Aspectual Features in Swedish, German, and English	209
2.	Aspectual Constraints and The Problem of Lexical Insertion	214
3.	Aspectual Copying Rule and Variable Syntactic Rules in Swedish and German	220
4.	Overt and Covert Aspectual Markers in Germanic Languages	224
5.	Verb Complements Occurring After Tactual Verbs in Swedish and German	232

6.	The Subject Raising Rule in English and the Generation of ACI and AWG-Constructions (HEAR and SEE)	236
7.	English Verbal Complements after Durative Verbs of Perception (LOOK AT, LISTEN TO, OBSERVE, WATCH, and WITNESS)	243
8.	English Verbal Complements after Nondurative Verbs of Perception (BEHOLD, DISCOVER, and NOTICE)	246
9.	English Verbal Complements after Tactual Verbs of Perception (FEEL ₁ and PERCEIVE ₁)	248
10.	FEEL ₂ , PERCEIVE ₂ , and the Accusative-with-TO-Infinitive	250
11.	Reflexive Complement and Predicate Complements after Verbs of Somatic Perception in Germanic Languages	252
12.	Towards a Theory of Comparative Synchronic Syntax
12.1	Common Germanic Deep Structures for Deriving Surface Structures	256
12.2	The Synthesis and Analysis of ACI-Constructions	259
12.3	A Model for Describing Forward and Backward Operating Transformations	263
12.4	Comparative Derivation of Verbal Complement Structures	266
12.5	Comparative versus Contrastive Syntax	272
12.6	An Illustrative Example of Comparative Synchronic Syntax	278
13.	The Subject Raising Rule as a Formal Universal
13.1	Typological Evidence	285
13.2	Historical Evidence	285
13.3	Subject Raising in Finno-Ugric Languages	286
13.3.1	Verbal Complements after North Lapp verba sentiendi	286
13.3.2	Verbal Complements after Finnish verba sentiendi	287
13.4	The Two-Subject Hypothesis and Subject Raising	291
