

Table of Contents

Erratum	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction Andrea Hammel and Anthony Grenville	xi
Agency in the Everyday: Subversive Discourses in the Work of Gina Kaus Regina Christiane Range	1
Doris Hart at the Metropolitan Opera – The Triumph of the ‘Little People’ Rose Sillars	21
Negotiating a Home: Henry Rothschild and the Émigré Experience Janine Barker	41
A Family Story through Letters: Dr Edith Mahler and Hans Schächter Elizabeth Schächter	65

---

Carl Laemmle's Protégés: Everyday Life in Exile after Escaping Nazi Germany through Help from Hollywood's Film Mogul	85
Bastian Heinsohn
Everyday life of German-speaking refugees in wartime Ireland	107
Horst Dickel and Gisela Holfter
The Struggle to Survive: German and Austrian Refugees' Depiction of Daily Life in Their Shanghai Exile	131
Jennifer E. Michaels
'Liebe Eltern!' – 'Liebes Kind': Letters between Kindertransportees and their Families as Everyday Life Documents	155
Andrea Hammel
Food in Exile	173
Anna Nyburg
Exilerfahrung des einsamen Intellektuellen – Jean Amérys Exilerfahrung vor 1964-66 und deren Bedeutung für sein Schreiben	191
Jan Schröder
Index	213