

	Contents
9	Acknowledgments
11	Introduction	Christian Moser and Maria Boletsis
29	I. Setting the Terms: Conceptual and Cultural Histories of Barbarism
31	Barbarians: From the Ancient to the New World	François Hartog
45	Towards a Cultural History of Barbarism from the Eighteenth Century to the Present	Markus Winkler
63	II. Barbarian Configurations in Classic, Medieval, and Early Modern Settings
65	Laughing (at the) Barbarians: On Barbarism and Humor in Homer and Herodotus	Daniel Wendt
85	On the Evil Side of Creation: Barbarians in Middle Dutch Texts	Clara Strijbosch
105	Naked Indians, Trousered Gauls: Montaigne on Barbarism	Paul J. Smith
123	III. Barbarism and/In Enlightenment Thought, Aesthetics, and Literature
125	The Conceptual History of Barbarism: What Can We Learn from Koselleck and Pocock?	Peter Vogt
139	Sublime Barbarism?: Affinities between the Barbarian and the Sublime in Eighteenth-Century Aesthetics	Reinhard M. Möller
155	Staging the Barbarian: The Case of Voltaire's Le Fanatisme, ou Mahomet le prophète	Madeleine Kasten
165	IV. Barbarism and the Constitution of Society: Literary Challenges to Evolutionary Models
167	Liminal Barbarism: Renegotiations of an Ancient Concept in (Post-)Enlightenment Social Theory and Literature	Christian Moser

183	"The Seat of the Young, Loving Feelings, thus Delusionally, Barbarically –": Barbarism and the Revolutionary State in Heinrich von Kleist's Penthesilea	Steven Howe
203	Trusting Barbarians?: Franz Grillparzer's The Golden Fleece and the Challenge to the Mythography of Empire	Tim Albrecht
221	V. Barbarism and/In Modernity
223	Des künig Etzelen man : The Huns and their King in Fritz Lang's Classic Silent Film Die Nibelungen and in the Nibelungenlied	Elke Brüggem and Franz-Josef Holznagel
255	Barbarians and Their Cult: On Walter Benjamin's Concept of New Barbarism	Georgios Sagriotis
267	Barbarians Betwixt and Between: Figurations of the Barbarian in Elfriede Jelinek's The Children of the Dead	Anna-Maria Valerius
283	VI. Barbarism In Contemporary Art and Popular Culture
285	The Limes Mexicanicus or the 'Barbarians at the Gate': The Depiction of 'Southern Invaders' in American Film of the Twenty-First Century	Heidi Denzel de Tirado
309	Writing Designed Anxieties on Barbarism, Ornament, Taste, and Bio-Design	Marjan Groot
329	Organizing Cultuur?Barbaar! : Some Problems of Creating Concepts Through Art	Gerlof van Engelenhoven and Looi van Kessel
343	VII. The Politics of Barbarism
345	Ultimi Barbarorum : Eloquence and Subjectivity in Twenty-First-Century Social Movements	Nikos Patellis
355	Waiting for the Barbarians after 9/11: Functions of a Topos in Liminal Times	Maria Boletsis
377	The Politics of Barbarism	Terry Eagleton
385	The Contributors
389	Index	