

A Study of Ralph Ellison's Published Work Viewed in the Context of the Theme of Identity in Negro American Literature

Dissertation
zur Erlangung des Doktorgrades
des Fachbereichs Philosophie
der Christian-Albrechts-Universität zu Kiel

vorgelegt von Hartmut K. Selke

Kiel 1975

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I	INTRODUCTION	7
1.	The Theme of Identity	8
2.	Concepts of Identity	18
CHAPTER II	IDENTITY IN AMERICA: THE COMPLEX FATE	32
1.	Identity and the American Experience	32
2.	The Negro American Experience and the Heightened Identity Consciousness: America's Metaphor	38
3.	Protest, Art, and the "Black Aesthetic"	48
4.	The American Versus the "African" Identity	57
CHAPTER III	RALPH ELLISON: BEFORE INVISIBLE MAN	65
1.	General Remarks	65
2.	Early Fiction	69
3.	Expository Writing	84
CHAPTER IV	INVISIBLE MAN : GENERAL ASPECTS	96
1.	Trends of Ellison Criticism	96
2.	The Structure of Invisible Man : The Confessional Mode	104
3.	The Picaresque Structure	113
4.	The Epigraphs	118
	a) Benito Cereno	118
	b) The Family Reunion	120
CHAPTER V	INVISIBLE MAN : SOCIOLOGICAL AND PSYCHOLOGICAL ASPECTS OF THE THEME OF IDENTITY	122
1.	The Denial of Identity	122
	a) Psychological Aspects	123
	b) Social Motives	132
	c) Reification	135

d) Ontological Insecurity	138
2. Means of Social Control	139
a) Miseducation: The College	139
b) Internalization	147
3. The Theme of Lynching and Castration in Negro American Literature and in Invisible Man With a Note on the Parallel Structure of the Two Parts of Ellison's Novel	150
4. The Mark of Oppression: "You Are My Fate, Young Man."	159
5. Forms of Inauthenticity	161
a) Abolishing the Stigma: Psychological Suicide	162
b) Out-Group Alignment: "You Field Niggers"	164
c) In-Group Alignment: "A Chief, a Black King"	169
d) Minstrelization: Acting the Nigger	171
e) Other Strategies	174
 CHAPTER VI FROM INAUTHENTICITY TO AUTHENTICITY	 177
1. The Period of Inauthenticity	177
2. The Acceptance of Folk Identity and the First Psychosocial Moratorium	184
3. The Acceptance of Cultural Identity and of the Racial Past	190
4. Brotherhood Spokesman	197
5. Rinehart, Invisibility, and Chaos	205
6. The Underground	216
7. Conclusion: Jazz and the Individual and Society	231
 NOTES	 234
 BIBLIOGRAPHY	 284