

Documentary Across Disciplines
Edited by Erika Balsom and Hila Peleg

Haus der Kulturen der Welt, Berlin
The MIT Press, Cambridge, MA and London, England

Contents

- Introduction: The Documentary Attitude 10
Erika Balsom, Hila Peleg
- Bruises and Blushes:
Photography “Beyond” Anthropology 20
Christopher Pinney
- “The Cruel Radiance of What Is” 40
Lucien Castaing-Taylor, Véréna Paravel, and Ben Rivers in Conversation
- “A Cage of Information,” or,
What is a Biometric Diagram? 80
Zach Blas
- Interviews in Perspective 1:
The Man with a Tape Recorder 92
Sylvère Lotringer
- Photography Is Not Served:
“The Family of Man” and The Human Condition 110
Ariella Azoulay
- “Now that’s Brecht at last!”:
Harun Farocki’s Observational Films 142
Volker Pantenburg
- Didactic Elegy 164
Ben Lerner
- Reading Between the Images 172
Christa Blümlinger

Montage Against All Odds 192
Antonia Majaca and Eyal Sivan in Conversation

No Man's Land, Every Man's Home:
Clemens von Wedemeyer's Documentary Aporia 214
Evgenia Giannouri

Interviews in Perspective 2:
Dying Documented 236
Sylvère Lotringer

Narrative, "Evidence Vérité," and the Different
Truths of the Modern Trial Documentary 252
Stella Bruzzi

The Right to One's Self-Image 280
Sobrab Mohebbi

Data Visualization and Documentary's 294
(In)visible Frontiers
Kris Fallon