

Contents

Introduction.....	9
The Book of Ruth's Dating and Objectives.....	9
The Structure of the Book of Ruth.....	22
Artistic Structure.....	26
Theology in the Book of Ruth.....	31
Attitude Towards the Law.....	38
The Narrative's Employment of Legal Discourse.....	40
Intertextuality Reflecting Violation of the Law.....	47
The Story of Judah and Tamar.....	48
Time and Space in the Book of Ruth.....	53
Time.....	55
Space.....	58
Introduction to Chapter 1.....	65
Exposition (1:1–6).....	71
The Long Way Home: Naomi and Her
Daughters-in-Law (1:7–18).....	87
Naomi's Second Soliloquy (11–14).....	95
Naomi's Third Soliloquy (15).....	102
"Wherever You Go, I Will Go" (16–17).....	104
Silent Acquiescence (18).....	110
Naomi (and Ruth's) Return to Bethlehem (1:19–22).....	113
Introduction to Chapter II.....	126
Ruth and Boaz's Encounter in the Field (2:1–23).....	131
The Solitary Gleaner (2–3).....	135
Boaz and His Boy in the Field (4–7).....	142
Boaz Addresses Ruth (8–9).....	156
Ruth's Response (10).....	161
Boaz's Response (11–12).....	163
Ruth's Reaction (13).....	167

Lunchtime Conversation (14–16).....	169
The Remains of the Day (17)	172
Ruth’s Return to Naomi (18–22)	174
The Structure of Ruth 2	186
Introduction to Chapter III.....	193
Ruth and Boaz’s Encounter at the Threshing-Floor (3:1–18).....	199
Naomi’s Suggestive Suggestion (1–5)	202
Ruth and Boaz at the Threshing-Floor (6–13)	212
Boaz’s Reaction (10–13).....	227
Daybreak (14–15).....	235
Uncovering and Covering.....	236
Ruth’s Return to Naomi (16–18)	240
Naomi’s Reaction	247
The Structure of Ruth 3	250
Introduction to Chapter IV.....	253
Before the Law (4:1–12).....	261
Gathering at the Gate (1–2)	261
The First Dialogue – the Redeemer Consents to Redeem the Field (3–4).....	267
The Second Dialogue – From Redemption to Acquisition (5–8)	278
“‘The Wife of the Deceased” – From Two Widows to One Couple	283
From the Redeemer to Boaz	285
Boaz’s Declaration (9–10).....	293
The People’s Blessing: Security and Estate (11–12)	297
Two Mothers in Bethlehem (4:13–17)	305
Marriage and Birth (13).....	305
The Choring of the Town: Let Your Name be Called (14–15).....	309
The Feminine Signature (14–17)	313
“‘The Father of Jesse the Father of David” (17).....	323

Appendix – The Lineage of Peretz (4:18–22).....	327
Afterword.....	333
Reading the Story in Light of Winnicott	335
Bridges.....	340