

Contents

Preface, xiii part one

ORIENTATION TO THE STUDY OF SOCIAL PROBLEMS

one

Why Study Social Problems?

3

Definition of a social problem, 4

Bias implicit in definition, 7

Fallacies about social problems, 8

Attitudes toward social problems, 14

Objectives for study, 18

Summary, 25

Suggested readings, 26

Questions and projects, 26

| | | |
|-----------------|---|-----------|
| vi | two | |
| Contents | Approaches to the Study of Social Problems | 28 |
| | Sociological frame of reference, 29 | |
| | Approaches to the study of social problems, 32 | |
| | The analysis of social problems, 43 | |
| | Summary, 44 | |
| | Suggested readings, 45 | |
| | Questions and projects, 45 | |

| | | |
|--|---|-----------|
| | three | |
| | The Interpretation of Data | 47 |
| | The technique of successful lying as practiced by talented liars, 48 | |
| | Tests of reliability in interpreting data, 55 | |
| | How to lie with statistics, 64 | |
| | Definition of terms, 77 | |
| | Summary, 78 | |
| | Suggested readings, 80 | |
| | Questions and projects, 81 | |

part two
MAJOR SOCIAL PROBLEMS IN THE UNITED STATES

| | | |
|--|---|-----------|
| | four | |
| | Vested Interest and Pressure Groups | 85 |
| | Special interest and pressure groups, 86 | |
| | The unique character of pressure groups, 88 | |
| | Vested interest groups, 92 | |
| | Business: a primary vested interest, 98 | |
| | The social-disorganization approach, 108 | |
| | The value-conflict approach, 111 | |
| | The personal-deviation approach, 113 | |
| | Summary, 115 | |
| | Suggested readings, 115 | |
| | Questions and projects, 116 | |

| | | | |
|---|------|---|-----|
| vii | five | Crime and Delinquency: Definition and Classification | 118 |
| Nature of the crime problem, 119 Some popular fallacies about crime, 134 A realistic classification of criminals, 139 Organized crime, 149 Summary, 154 Suggested readings, 154 Questions and projects, 155 | | | |
| six | | | |
| | | Crime and Delinquency: Causes and Treatment | 156 |
| The analysis of causes, 156 The personal-deviation approach, 164 The value-conflict approach, 166 The social-disorganization approach, 169 Some popular proposals for treatment, 171 Some professional proposals for treatment, 180 Summary, 191 Suggested readings, 192 Questions and projects, 194 | | | |
| seven | | | |
| | | Family and Generational Problems | 195 |
| The youth contraculture, 197 Divorce, 202 Premarital intercourse and illegitimacy, 207 Abortion, 212 Extramarital sex, 215 The status of women, 223 Alternatives to marriage, 229 The social-disorganization approach, 234 The value-conflict approach, 237 The personal-deviation approach, 240 Summary, 243 Suggested readings, 245 Questions and projects, 246 | | | |

| | | |
|------------------|--|-----|
| viii Contents | eight Religious Problems and Conflicts The changing face of religion in the United States, 248 Religious problems in American life, 253 The social-disorganization approach, 264 The value-conflict approach, 265 The personal-deviation approach, 266 Summary, 268 Suggested readings, 269 Questions and projects, 270 | 247 |
| | nine Population Problems: Nation and World The problems, 272 Population growth, 275 Distribution problems of migration, 284 Quality, 290 The social-disorganization approach, 295 The value-conflict approach, 296 The personal-deviation approach, 297 Summary, 300 Suggested readings, 301 Questions and projects, 301 | 271 |
| | ten Education in an Age of Change The changing task of education, 304 Problem areas in American education, 305 The social-disorganization approach, 330 The value-conflict approach, 331 The personal-deviation approach, 331 Future prospects, 332 Suggested readings, 333 Questions and projects, 334 | 303 |
| | eleven Poverty The size and cost of the problem, 337 Definitions of poverty, 338 The trend of poverty, 341 The distribution of poverty, 342 Trends tending to alleviate poverty, 347 Some counter-trends, 351 | 335 |

| | |
|-----------------|--|
| ix | Proposals for alleviating poverty, 352 |
| Contents | The social-disorganization approach, 363 |
| | The value-conflict approach, 365 |
| | The personal-deviation approach, 367 |
| | Summary, 369 |
| | Suggested readings, 370 |
| | Questions and projects, 371 |

twelve

The Race Problem:
From Folklore to Science 373

| |
|---|
| Some problems of definition, 374 |
| The scientific facts about race differences, 376 |
| Some facts about race prejudice, 379 |
| Theories of the causes of prejudice, 383 |
| Some common myths, evasions, and rationalizations, 391 |
| Minority adjustments to prejudice and discrimination, 397 |
| The social-disorganization approach, 402 |
| The value-conflict approach, 405 |
| The personal-deviation approach, 406 |
| Suggested readings, 407 |
| Questions and projects, 407 |

thirteen

The Race Problem:
From Apathy to Action 408

| |
|--|
| Techniques of reducing prejudice and discrimination, 409 |
| Current trends in race relations in America, 417 |
| Unsettled issues in race relations, 424 |
| Future prospects, 434 |
| Suggested readings, 435 |
| Questions and projects, 437 |

fourteen

Urban and Rural Problems 438

| |
|--|
| The tremendous growth of cities, 440 |
| The problems of cities, 442 |
| Rural problems, 458 |
| The social-disorganization approach, 464 |
| The value-conflict approach, 469 |
| The personal-deviation approach, 471 |
| Future prospects, 473 |
| Suggested readings, 474 |
| Questions and projects, 475 |

| | | |
|----------|--|------------|
| Contents |  x fifteen Communication Problems in Mass Society   Structure of the mass media, 478 Problems of mass media, 482 The social-disorganization approach, 510 The value-conflict approach, 511 The personal-deviation approach, 511 Improving the mass media, 512 Summary, 521 Suggested readings, 521 Questions and projects, 522  | 476 |
| |  sixteen Social Deviance   Mental illness, 525 Alcoholism, 538 Gambling, 545 Drug abuse, 550 Prostitution and homosexuality, 564 The social-disorganization approach, 572 The value-conflict approach, 573 The personal-deviation approach, 574 Summary, 575 Suggested readings, 577 Questions and projects, 578  | 524 |
| |  seventeen Health and Medical Care   America's health—how good is it? 581 Poverty and social class, 583 Life style and health, 585 Nutrition and health, 592 Other health hazards, 598 Medical care and health, 598 The social-disorganization approach, 607 The value-conflict approach, 608 The personal-deviation approach, 610 The reorganization of health services, 611 Summary, 621 Suggested readings, 623 Questions and projects, 624  | 580 |

The American heritage of freedom, 627
Current civil liberties issues in the United States, 634
Political extremism, 635
The right of property, 645
The right of dissent, 647
The right of personal autonomy, 651
The rights of the helpless, 655
The right to demand services, 657
The social-disorganization approach, 657
The value-conflict approach, 658
The personal-deviation approach, 659
The future course of American liberty, 661
Summary, 662
Suggested readings, 663
Questions and projects, 663

nineteen
War in the Twentieth Century

665

The extensiveness of war, 666
The cost of war, 674
The definition of war, 676
Types of war, 677
War as a social problem, 680
Efforts to prevent war, 682
War crimes, 689
The social-disorganization approach, 692
The value-conflict approach, 694
The personal-deviation approach, 697
Summary, 699
Suggested readings, 701
Questions and projects, 701

twenty Environment and Social Policy

703

Origin of the environmental crisis, 706
A sample of environmental problems, 712
The social-disorganization approach, 722
The value-conflict approach, 723
The personal-deviation approach, 724

| | |
|-----------------|--|
| xii | Some basic considerations in the treatment of environmental problems, 724 |
| Contents | Prospects, 729 |
| | Summary, 729 |
| | Suggested readings, 730 |
| | Questions and projects, 731 |

part three
CONCLUSION

twenty-one
Retrospect and Prospect 735

| |
|---|
| The triple revolution, 736 |
| The three approaches to changing problems, 736 |
| Some diminishing problems, 741 |
| Some growing problems, 742 |
| Some difficulties of "solutions," 745 |
| Prospect—Armageddon or promised land?, 748 |
| Summary, 750 |
| Suggested readings, 751 |
| Questions and projects, 752 |

Index 753