

Contents

Preface	ix
Series Editors' Introduction	xi
1. Introduction	1
James F. Voss and Mario Carretero

Section I

Narrative and Sociocultural Approach to History Teaching and Learning

2. The Structure of Historical Narratives and the Teaching of History	9
Jeretz Topolski
3. Historical Representation as Mediated Action: Official History as a Tool	23
William R. Penuel and James V. Wertsch
4. The Russian Revolution: Official and Unofficial Accounts	39
James V. Wertsch and Mark Rozin
5. Uses of Historical Knowledge: An Exploration of the Construction of Professional Identity in Students of Psychology	61
Alberto Rosa, Florentino Blanco and Juan A. Huertas
6. Total History and its Enemies in Present-Day Teaching	79
Carlos Martínez-Shaw

Section II

Uses of Texts, Documents and Images in History Learning

7. Understanding Historical Controversies: Students' Evaluation and Use of Documentary Evidence	95
Jean-François Rouet, Maureen A. Marron, Charles A. Perfetti and Monik Favart

- | | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| 8. | What Do Students Know and How Do They Seek to Know More? Knowledge Base and the Search for Strategies in the Study of Art History
Fernando Hernández | 117 |
| 9. | Seeing the Past: Learning History through Group Discussion of Iconographic Sources
Alessandra Fasulo, Hilda Girardet and Clotilde Pontecorvo | 132 |
| 10. | Wildflowers, Sheep, and Democracy: The Role of Analogy in the Teaching and Learning of History
Kathleen McCarthy Young and Gaea Leinhardt | 154 |

Section III
Historical Explanations

- | | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| 11. | Causality in History: On the ‘Intuitive’ Understanding of the Concepts of Sufficiency and Necessity
James F. Voss, Joseph Ciarrochi and Mario Carretero | 199 |
| 12. | Influence of Intentional and Personal Factors in Recalling Historical Texts: A Developmental Perspective
Angel Rivière, María Núñez, Beatriz Barquero and Federico Fontela | 214 |
| 13. | Researching Children’s Ideas about History
Peter Lee, Alaric Dickinson and Rosalyn Ashby | 227 |
| 14. | Evidence Evaluation and Reasoning Abilities in the Domain of History: An Empirical Study
Margarita Limón and Mario Carretero | 252 |
| 15. | On Reasoning in History
Ola Halldén | 272 |

Section IV
History Teaching and Understanding

- | | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| 16. | Goals in History Teaching
Peter N. Stearns | 281 |
|-----|--|-----|

17.	Generating Explanations in History Liliana Jacott, Asunción López-Manjón and Mario Carretero	294
18.	Student Perceptions of History and Historical Concepts James F. Voss, Jennifer Wiley and Joel Kennet	307
19.	Constructing Historical Knowledge at High School: The Case of the Industrial Revolution Teresa Fernández-Corte and Juan Antonio García-Madruga	331
20.	Promoting the Learning of Causal Explanations in History through Different Teaching Strategies Jesús Domínguez and Juan Ignacio Pozo	344
21.	Representation and Understanding of History Bodo von Borries	360
	Notes on Contributors	378
	References	384
	Index	413