

Contents

ABOUT THE AUTHORS	10
PART I: CURRICULUM IMPLEMENTATION
Chapter 1: Introduction to ABA Curriculum	13
Chapter 2: Curriculum Guide	19
Chapter 3: ABA Curriculum—Understanding the Task Analyses	22
Chapter 4: ABA Curriculum—Implementing the Task Analyses	28
Chapter 5: Teaching Strategies	35
Chapter 6: Data Collection and Data Recording	43
Chapter 7: Graphing	52
Chapter 8: Creating an ABA Environment	60
PART II: CURRICULUM PROGRAMS
Chapter 9: Task Analyses for Attending Skills	69
Appropriate Sitting 70; Appropriate Sitting and Completing an Activity 72; Eye Contact in Response to Name 74; Visual Tracking 77
Chapter 10: Task Analyses for Imitation Skills	79
Gross Motor Imitation with Objects 80; Gross Motor Imitation 83; Fine Motor Imitation with Objects 86; Fine Motor Imitation 89; Oral Motor Imitation with and without Objects 92; Verbal and Motor Imitation 95
Chapter 11: Task Analyses for Visual Spatial Skills	98
Crossing Midline 99; Matching Identical Object to Object 101; Matching Identical Picture to Picture 105; Matching Identical Object to Picture and Picture to Object, 3D/2D 109; Matching Identical and Similar Actions 115; Matching Colors 121; Matching Identical Letters 125; Matching Numbers 132; Matching Shapes 135; Matching Uppercase to Lowercase Letters 139; Matching Non-Identical Object to Object 146; Matching Non-Identical Picture to Picture 150; Matching Non-Identical Object to Picture and Picture to Object, 3D/2D 154; Sorting Identical and Similar Objects 160; Sorting Objects Based on Color 165; Sorting Objects Based on Size 168; Sorting Similar Pictures 171; Sorting Pictures Based on Color 175; Sorting Pictures Based on Size 179; Sorting by Groups/ Categories 183; Inset Puzzles 187; Shape Sorter 189

Chapter 12: Task Analyses for Receptive Language Skills

191

Receptive Labels of Actions 192; Receptive Labels of Animals 195; Receptive Labels of Animal Sounds 198; Receptive Labels of Body Parts 202; Receptive Labels of Body Parts via “Head, Shoulders, Knees and Toes” Song 206; Receptive Labels of Clothing Items 208; Receptive Labels of Environmental Objects 212; Receptive Labels of Environmental Sounds 216; Receptive Labels of Familiar People 220; Receptive Labels of Food and Drink 223; Receptive Labels of Functional Objects 227; Receptive Labels of Furniture 231; Receptive Labels of Leisure Objects and Activities 235; Receptive Labels of Places 239; Receptive Labels of Prepositions and Object Placement 242; Receptive Labels of School Supplies 244; Receptive Labels of Sports 247; Receptive Labels of Toys 250; Receptive Labels of Vehicles 254; Receptive Instructions (One-Step) 257

Chapter 13: Task Analyses for Expressive Language Skills

259

Gestural Communication 261; Gestural Communication via Communication Temptations 266; Gaining Adult Attention 269; Picture Exchange Communication System (Phase 1: The Physical Exchange) 272; Picture Exchange Communication System (Phase 2: Increasing the Distance) 274; Picture Exchange Communication System (Phase 3A: Picture Discrimination between Highly Preferred Icon and Distractor Icon) 277; Picture Exchange Communication System (Phase 3B: Picture Discrimination between Two Highly Preferred Icons) 280; Picture Exchange Communication System (Phase 4: Sentence Structure) 283; Picture Exchange Communication System (Phase 5: Responding to “What do you want?”) 285; Picture Exchange Communication System (Phase 6: Commenting) 288; Verbal Imitation 291; Expressive Labels of Actions 294; Expressive Labels of Animals 296; Expressive Labels of Animals Sounds 298; Expressive Labels of Body Parts 301; Expressive Labels of Clothing Items 303; Expressive Labels of Environmental Objects 305; Expressive Labels of Environmental Sounds 307; Expressive Labels of Familiar People 309; Expressive Labels of Food and Drink 311; Expressive Labels of Functional Objects 313; Expressive Labels of Furniture 315; Expressive Labels of Leisure Objects and Activities 317; Expressive Labels of Places 319; Expressive Labels of Prepositions and Object Placement 321; Expressive Labels of School Supplies 323; Expressive Labels of Sports 325; Expressive Labels of Toys 327; Expressive Labels of Vehicles 329; Simple Requests 331; Reciprocating a Greeting and Farewell 335; Initiating a Greeting and Farewell 337; Intra-Verbal Fill-Ins with Songs and Games with Actions 338; Answering Simple Yes/No Questions about Labels of Animals, Objects and People 341; Answering Simple Yes/No Questions about Desired Objects and Toys 343; Answering Simple Social Questions 345

Chapter 14: Task Analyses for Academic Skills

347

Coloring 348; Object Permanence 350; Following a First/Then Schedule 352; Receptive Labels of Colors 355; Receptive Labels of Letters 358; Receptive Labels of Numbers 365; Receptive Labels of Shapes 369; Expressive Labels of Colors 372; Expressive Labels of Letters 374; Expressive Labels of Numbers 378; Expressive Labels of Shapes 381; Pre-Handwriting Skills 383; Rote Counting 385; Tracing 388

Chapter 15: Task Analyses for Play/Social Skills

390

Appropriate Play/Touch with Infant Sibling 391; Ball Play 394; Basic Pretend Play (Single Action) 396; Blowing Objects 400; Building Towers with Blocks 402; Closed-Ended Solitary Toy Play with Cause-and-Effect Toys 404; Closed-Ended Solitary Toy Play with Gross Motor Toys 406; Closed-Ended Solitary Toy Play with Mechanical/Electronic Toys 408; Functional Use of Objects 410; Giving Objects to Another 412; Independent Play via a Play Schedule 414; Joint Attention 417; Open-Ended Solitary Toy Play with Cause-and-Effect Toys 419; Open-Ended Solitary Toy Play with Gross Motor Toys 421; Open-Ended Solitary Toy Play with Mechanical/Electronic Toys 423; Parallel Play 425; Participation in Songs and Games with Actions 427; Participation in Songs and Games with Actions (“If You’re Happy and You Know It”) 430; Participation in Songs and Games with actions (“Itsy Bitsy Spider”) 433; Participation in Songs and Games with actions (“Wheels on the Bus”) 435; Playing in a Sandbox 437; Playing with Play-Doh 440; Pouring Liquid from Container to Container 443

Chapter 16: Task Analyses for Adaptive Skills

445

Cup Use (Assisted and Unassisted) 446; Using a Child’s Cup with a Lid (Assisted and Unassisted) 449; Dressing/Undressing (Putting on and Taking off a Coat) 451; Dressing/Undressing (Putting on and Taking off a Hat) 453; Dressing/Undressing (Putting on and Taking off Pants) 455; Dressing/Undressing (Putting on and Taking off a Shirt) 458; Dressing/Undressing (Putting on and Taking off Socks and Shoes) 461; Dressing/Undressing (Putting on and Taking off Underwear) 465; Drinking from a Straw 468; Eating with a Fork and Spoon 470; Fine Motor Skills Based on the ABLLS-R 473; Gross Motor Skills Based on the ABLLS-R 475; Using a Pincer Grasp to Pick up Small Objects 477; Using a Tissue 479; Washing and Drying Face 481; Washing and Drying Hands 484; Toileting for Urination (Accident Free for Two Hours) 486; Wiping for Bowel Movement 489; Wiping for Urination 491

REFERENCES

493