

Contents

FOREWORD by SIR GODFREY NICHOLSON	vii
EDITOR'S FOREWORD	ix
INTRODUCTION	xi
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	xii
1. What is a psychotic (autistic) child?	1
2. Symptomatic behaviour	6
3. Suggestions for dealing with symptomatic problems which occur when caring for children suffering from a severe psychotic illness	9
4. General principles for use when caring for mentally sick children	14
5. Routine physical care—Dressing and undressing	20
6. Routine physical care—Feeding	24
7. Routine physical care—Toilet training	29
8. Routine physical care—Sleeping	33
9. Speech, hearing and communication problems peculiar to psychotic children	38
10. The severely emotionally disturbed child as apart from the psychotic child	45
11. The differences between normal and mentally sick children with more suggestions for training the mentally sick	50

12. Stimulation	55
13. Occupation	61
14. Recreation	72
15. Conclusion	77