

JACK LONDON

Essays in Criticism

Edited by
Ray Wilson Ownbey

Peregrine Smith, Inc.
SANTA BARBARA AND SALT LAKE CITY

1978

Contents

Introduction: London in the Seventies Ray Ownbey	7
Jack London: Master Craftsman of the Short Story King Hendricks	13
Jack London's Symbolic Wilderness: Four Versions Earle Labor	31
Jack London's Use of Carl Jung's Psychology of the Unconscious James I. McClintock	43
Androgyny in the Novels of Jack London Clarice Stasz	54
Jack London's Heart of Darkness Sam S. Baskett	66
The "Kipling of the Klondike": Naturalism in London's Early Fiction Earl Wilcox	79
A New Reading of The Sea Wolf James Ellis	92
The Transformation of Material in a Mimetic Fiction Gordon Mills	100
Jack London's Martin Eden : The Development of the Existential Hero Jonathan Spinner	114
Notes on Contributors	121
Bibliography	123