

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction i

- 1 The New Nation's Public Lands: A First Century without a National Vision 3
  - 2 Benjamin Harrison, Grover Cleveland, and William McKinley: The Idea of Preserving the Public Lands Finds Cautious Presidential Sponsors, 1891–1901 23
  - 3 Theodore Roosevelt: The Conservation Crusade Welcomes a Presidential Leader, 1901–1909 37
  - 4 William Taft, Woodrow Wilson, Warren Harding, Calvin Coolidge, and Herbert Hoover: The Conservation Agenda, 1910s–1920s 59
  - 5 Franklin D. Roosevelt: Conservation Foundations of New Deal Leadership, 1930s–1940s 114
  - 6 Harry Truman, Dwight Eisenhower, and John F. Kennedy: Growing and Polluting in Boom Times, 1940s–1950s 153
  - 7 Lyndon Baines Johnson, Richard Nixon, Gerald Ford, and Jimmy Carter: Environmentalism Arrives, 1960s–1970s 209
  - 8 Ronald Reagan, George H. W. Bush, and Bill Clinton: Presidents Brown and Pale Green, 1980s–1990s 276
  - 9 George W. Bush and Barack Obama: Wobbly Leaders, 2000– 328
  10. Trying Again for Greener Presidents 358
- Notes 367
- Suggested Further Reading 391
- Index 409