Contents

Preface xi

About the Authors xv

PART ONE Collaboration Online 1

1 Collaboration in the Online Environment 3

Collaboration—The Hallmark of Constructivism 6
Why Collaborate Online? 7
Collaboration Online 9
Working with Virtual Teams 11
Virtual Team Dynamics 14
Summary Points to Remember on Collaboration Basics 18

2 The Process of Online Collaboration 19

The Stages of Collaboration 19
Tools for Collaboration 24
Summary Points to Remember on the Process of Online Collaboration 29

Palloff, Rena M.
Collaborating online

digitalisiert durch:
IDS Luzern

3 Collaboration Challenges 31

Things That Go Bump in the Night 31
Participation Challenges 33
Challenges in Leadership and Decision Making 35
Course and Activity Design Challenges 36
The Challenge of Cultural Differences 37
Final Thoughts on Challenges to Collaboration Online 38
Summary Points to Remember on Collaboration Challenges 39

4 Assessment and Evaluation of Collaborative Work 41

Learner-Centered Assessment, Including Self-Assessment 42
Rubrics and Expectations 44
Collaborative Assessment 44
Guidelines for Feedback 48
Assessment that Aligns with Context and Learning Objectives 50
Assessments That Are Clear and Easy to Understand 50
Assessments Designed with Student Input 51
The Empowered Learner 53
Summary Points to Remember on Assessment and Evaluation of Collaborative Work 53

PART TWO Collaborative Activities 55

1 Role Playing 57
2 Simulations 60
3 Case Studies 63
4 Questioning Techniques for Collaborative Discussions 69
5 Dyads 73
6 Small-Group Projects 77
7 Jigsaw Activities 79
8 Blogs 81

9 Virtual Teams 83
10 Debates 85
11 Fishbowls 87
12 Learning Cycles 89
13 WebQuests 93

Final Thoughts on Collaborative Activities 99
Summary Points to Remember on Collaborative Activities 100

Additional Resources 101

References 105

Index 109