

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Contributors	ix
1 Child Language Disorders Across Languages, Cultural Contexts and Syndromes Janet L. Patterson	1
Part 1: Language Disorders in Specific Clinical Populations
2 Language and Communication Abilities of Bilingual Children with Autism Spectrum Disorders Stefka H. Marinova-Todd and Pat Mirenda	31
3 Bilingualism and Children with Down Syndrome Elizabeth Kay-Raining Bird	49
4 Communication in Children with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders: Impairment and Intervention John C. Thorne and Truman E. Coggins	74
5 Multilingual Perspectives on Language in Children with Williams Syndrome Vesna Stojanovic	95
Part 2: Language Disorders in Specific Languages
6 Language Disorders in Cantonese-Speaking Children Carol K.S. To	123

7	Perspectives on Working with Preschool Children from Panjabi-, Gujarati- and Bengali-Speaking Families Jane Stokes and Nita Madhani	149
8	Typical Language Development and Primary Language Impairment in Monolingual French-Speaking Children Elin Thordardottir	176
9	Comparing Measures of Spontaneous Speech of Turkish-Speaking Children With and Without Language Impairment Seyhun Topbaş and İlknur Maviş	209
10	Linguistic Variation and Assessment Implications for Spanish-Speaking Children in the United States Barbara L. Rodríguez	228
	Index	249