

The Cooper Monographs

ON ENGLISH AND AMERICAN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

FOUNDED BY H. LÜDEKE † · EDITED BY R. STAMM

BASEL · SWITZERLAND

15

ROLF SCHEIBLER

THE LATE PLAYS
OF EUGENE O'NEILL

FRANCKE VERLAG BERN

CONTENTS

Preface	5
A TOUCH OF THE POET	12
I. The First Part of the Play (Acts I–III): Melody's Pose a Result of Romantic Self-Conception. The Problem of Possessive Idealism.	14
a) Melody's Misunderstanding of his Real Qualities and the Resulting Misinterpretation of his Past	14
b) Melody's Futile Efforts at Maintaining his Pose against the Evidence of Everyday Reality	16
c) The Depiction of Melody's Former Unity. His Conception of Him- self as a Result of the Romantic Fallacy	21
d) Possessive Idealism: The Harfords. Melody's Resemblance to the Harfords	27
II. The Unmasking of Melody's Second Dream (Act IV)	40
III. The Anti-Idealistic World of the Women	47
IV. The Two Main Functions of the Analytical Method	55
A MOON FOR THE MISBEGOTTEN	57
I. The Moonlight Scenes	63
a) General Structure	63
b) Introduction: Comic Variant and Identification	73
c) The Analytical Function of the Moonlight Scenes	79
II. The Symbol of the Pietà	85
a) The Use of the Image	85
b) The Growing Contrast between the Lovers	88
c) The Formal Function of the Confessions	91
III. The End of the Play	97
LONG DAY'S JOURNEY INTO NIGHT	102
I. The Analysis: Acceptance versus Escape	104
a) Tyrone's Life	104

b) Mary's Life	106
c) Mary, a Victim of the Romantic Fallacy	107
d) Edmund, the Young Poet at the Crossroads	117
II. Mary as a New Symbol of the Men's Belonging	130
a) The Symbol of the Fog	131
b) Mary's Presence in the Words and Actions of the Last Act	134
c) Mary and the Foghorn	137
d) The Last Scene as a Theatrical Image of Mary's Double Presence ..	139
e) Mary's Double Presence in Acts I-III	140
 THE ICEMAN COMETH	 151
I. The Plot	154
II. Comments and Interpretations	156
III. The Analytical Part of the Play	161
1. Hickey (Grotesque Portrait of the Defeated Bourgeois and Puritan)	161
a) Contradiction of Word and Action in Scenes and Reports	172
b) Mirror Effects	177
2. Larry, the Tragedy of Detachment	184
IV. The Evocation of the Values in the Anti-Idealistic Wold of Harry Hope	194
V. The Unity of the Play	210
 CONCLUSION	 214
 Selected Bibliography	 219