

O'NEILL'S
SCENIC IMAGES

BY TIMO TIUSANEN

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY PRESS

PRINCETON, NEW JERSEY 1968

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
List of Illustrations	xi
Introduction: Scenic Approach to Drama	3
PART ONE: REALISM MIXED WITH MELODRAMA
1. The Man and His Background	31
*2. Apprenticeship I: Exercises in Constructing a Scenic Image	39
3. Apprenticeship II: Three Lost Plays Refound	57
4. Apprenticeship III: Passing the Horizon	73
5. Early Realism: From The Straw to The First Man	82
PART TWO: EXPLORING THE STAGE
6. Fusion of the Means: The Emperor Jones	97
7. Brief Encounter: The Hairy Ape	113
8. Pageants Through History: The Fountain, Marco Millions, Lazarus Laughed	129
9. Removable Walls: Desire Under the Elms, Dynamo	151
10. Behind the Masks: From The Ancient Mariner to Days Without End	168
11. Asides Around Women: Welded, Strange Interlude	207

CONTENTS

12. Electra Enters the House: Mourning Becomes Electra 225
13. A Realistic "Digression": Ah, Wilderness! 241

PART THREE: THE FINAL SYNTHESIS, DYNAMIC REALISM

14. One of the Missing Links: More Stately Mansions 249
15. Composition for Solos and a Chorus: The Iceman Cometh 264
16. Through the Fog into the Monologue: Long Day's Journey Into Night } (285)
17. Virgin and Son in the Moonlight: A Moon for the Misbegotten 304
18. Ghosts of the Past: Hughie, A Touch of the Poet 316
Conclusion: O'Neill's Scenic Images (331)
Appendices 349
Bibliography 359
Index 373