

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Abbreviations	ix
1. Foreword.....	1
L. H. Sackett
2. Introduction.....	3
J. E. Francis
3. From Cyrene to Gortyn. Notes on the relationship between Crete and Cyrenaica under Roman domination (1st century BC–4th century AD)	11
F. Chevrollier
4. A context for Knossos: Italian Sigillata stamps and cultural identity across Crete.....	27
M. W. Baldwin Bowsky
5. The double-axe (λάβρυς) in Roman Crete and beyond: the iconography of a multi-faceted symbol.....	43
A. Kouremenos
6. The Roman climate in the southwest Aegean: was it really different?.....	59
J. Moody
7. Apiculture in Roman Crete.....	83
J. E. Francis
8. Roman imperial sculpture from Crete: a re-appraisal	101
P. Karanastasi
9. An Attic marble table support (τραπεζοφόρον) in relief from Roman Kissamos: preliminary remarks.....	119
M. Milidakis and C. Papadaki
10. The Roman theatre at Aptera: a preliminary report	127
V. Niniou-Kindeli and N. Chatzidakis
11. Roman Gortyn: from Greek polis to provincial capital	155
E. Lippolis
12. Crete's economic transformation in the late Roman Empire	175
S. Gallimore
13. Theatres, plays, and the '3rd century crisis'.....	189
G. W. M. Harrison

14. Pottery of the 4th–early 9th centuries AD on Crete: the current state of research and new directions	199
A. G. Yangaki
15. Afterword: putting Crete on the Roman map.....	235
A. Kouremenos
Index	239
Plates	247