
Contents

Preface	ix
Part I Background	1
<hr/>
Chapter 1	3
<hr/>
Language and Literacy
Literacy as a language process
A model of language
Language development
Attention skills
Difficulties with spoken language
A model of reading
Chapter 2	11
<hr/>
The Dyslexic Learner
Language difficulties of the dyslexic learner: Hugh's story
Word-finding difficulties
In the classroom
Chapter 3	17
<hr/>
The Development of Literacy Skills
A staged model
Emergent literacy
Chapter 4	25
<hr/>
Phonological Awareness
Pattern of development
Implications for reading

Chapter 5 32

Teaching Reading

- Some common approaches

- Special approaches for the dyslexic learner

- Supportive approaches for children with speech and language difficulties

- Computers and literacy difficulties

Part II Skills into Action 45

Chapter 6 47

Assessment

- The assessment menu

- Assessment in action: two examples

- An assessment summary

- Learning objectives

- Continuous assessment and recording progress

Chapter 7 63

A Whole Language Approach to Reading and Writing

- Listening to stories

- Shared and guided reading

- Integrating skills

- Developing independent reading skills and strategies

- Developing writing skills

Chapter 8 83

Developing Phonological Awareness

- Developing a sense of rhythm

- Developing awareness of rhyme

- Developing awareness of alliteration

- Developing awareness of onset and rime

- Developing phonemic awareness

Chapter 9 95

The Alphabet

- Alphabet knowledge

- Using dictionaries

Chapter 10 102

A Structured Approach

Introduction to letter–sound links

Handwriting

Building a reading pack: essential routines

Word reading and word spelling: building up a sight vocabulary

Phonically regular words

Reading and writing sentences

Use of games

Planning a lesson

Part III The Step-by-step Programme 129

Chapter 11 131

Moving Through Section 1

Presenting the programme

Letter order checklists

Learning irregular words

Onset and rime activity

Syllable division

Internalising ‘spelling language’

Handwriting: completion of alphabet

Pictures for consonant blend cards

Chapter 12 188

Moving Through Section 2

Revision of Section 1

Presenting Section 2

List of Resources 230References 232Index 237