

Table of contents

Preface	9
Introduction	11
The scope of the research	13
Research problem(s)	14
Research method	16
Relevance of the research	17
The primary sources: the correspondence of the Seamen's pastors	19
Historiography (status questionis)	21

NORWAY

1 'While the North Sea surges': the roots of the Norwegian Seamen's Mission	33
A new Norwegian mission organisation	33
A new flag, an ancient kingdom: (re)discovering the Norwegian nation	40
'An old house': the Evangelical-Lutheran church	56
The Norwegian seaman: a long seafaring tradition	62
A network of Norwegian Seamen's churches: the pioneers	71

ANTWERP

2 'A gift of the Scheldt': the port of Antwerp	83
The port on the Scheldt	83
The port in peace and wartime	85
Expansion and growth	88
A Norwegian Seamen's pastor in Antwerp: early encounters	89
The Belgian Protestants	92
3 'A Norwegian cathedral in Antwerp': the Bethlehem church	95
Plans for a Lutheran Seamen's Church	96
The building committee	97
Building permission	99
The architect and his design	101
Foundation ceremony	103
Inauguration ceremony	111
The interior of the Bethlehem church	113
Financial and legal complexities	116
Some conclusions	125
4 'Seeking, calling and protecting': the work among the seamen	127
Around the docks	127
Dockside work – and strikes	133
Sinful Ant-

werp 139 | In the Schipperstraat 140 | Desertion 144 | Seamen in prison 147 | Church and reading room 148 | Job description of the assistants 154 | Brothers in the faith 155 | A broader, cultural mission 157 | Sceptical seamen 159 | Disturbing news from home 160 | 'A people's home' 161 | Songs for seamen 162 | Statistics of the activities 163 | A thank-you letter from 'several seamen' 164 | Christmas celebrations 165

5 'Social and humane work': responses to health and social problems 171
of the seamen

Sickness in the port: the threat of epidemic disease 171 | A Seamen's Home in Antwerp: conflicting models 183 | The 'Sunday question': an international movement 202 | Perspectives on the social problems of the time – through the eyes of the pastors 207

6 'In the hand of the Lord': the Scandinavian Congregation in Antwerp 209
The founding and early years of the Scandinavian congregation 209 | Inter-congregational relations and doctrinal differences 213 | The composition of the resident congregation 215 | Managing the congregation 217 | The role of women 224 | Life-cycle rituals 227 | National sentiments and celebrations 1905-1914 235 | The Scandinavian colony in wartime: the Great War in Belgium 244

THE DUTCH PORTS

7 'The Harbours of Holland': a Seamen's mission station for the Dutch 255 ports

Drammen: a maritime centre in Eastern Norway 256 | Ports and waterways of Holland 258 | Religion, state and society in the Dutch Republic 260 | State and religion in the nineteenth century 261 | The Lutheran Church in Amsterdam 262

8 'An emissary from home': the work of the pastors 266

Visits to Nieuwediep, Harlingen and Dordrecht 266 | Visiting the ships 271 | A note on the term 'Scandinavian seamen' 279 | Visiting the sick 280 | The church: religious services and meetings 281 | Life cycle rituals 285 | Christmas celebrations 289

9 'A refuge from dangers and temptations': responses to social problems 294
of the seamen

The dangers and temptations of the port 294 | The problem of desertion 298 | The reading-room as 'refuge' 301 | Beyond the reading-room

– responses to exceptional circumstances 309 | The Christian Seamen's Home in Rotterdam 312 | The struggle for control of the Christian Seamen's Home 315 | A public debate in Norway on seamen's welfare 318

- 10 'A greater Norway': the Norwegian identity abroad 321
The Norwegian 'colony' in the Netherlands 321 | Nordmands-Forbundet: the Norsemen's Federation 323 | Det Norske Forbund i Holland: objectives, membership, activities 325 | National celebrations – with or without the seamen 332 | Relations with the Seamen's Church 339
- 11 'A church in a Norwegian style': building a Seamen's Church in Rotterdam 342
Early projects in Amsterdam 342 | Rotterdam – new plans for a church, in a Norwegian style 347 | The architects' competition 349 | National romanticism in Norwegian architecture around 1900 352 | Fund-raising for the church 356 | The debate in the City Council 359 | Erecting the church structure 364 | 17 May 1914: an unofficial opening of the church 367 | Pastor Saxe's sermon 368 | The 26th of July 1914: the official opening ceremony and celebrations 369

THE HOME ORGANISATION

- 12 'Praise God for the soft hands': the work of the women's societies 379
Roots in the mission culture 380 | 'Mission women' in the Norwegian Mission Society (NMS) 381 | Women's societies of the Seamen's Mission 383 | Sunnmøre krets of the Seamen's Mission: a retrospective study 386 | Beginnings: foundation stories 390 | Meetings and bazaars 393 | Oslo (Christiania) krets of the Norwegian Seamen's Mission 396 | Bazaars in the seamen's churches of Antwerp and Rotterdam 402 | 'A Norwegian bazaar in Cardiff' 405

- Concluding reflections 410
Political and cultural context of Norway in mid-nineteenth century 410
The seamen: position in the Norwegian economy and society 412
The Mission: representing the 'Church of Home' 412
The nation 419
Final remarks 423

ANNEXES

Annex 1	Succession of Norwegian seamen's pastors in Antwerp and the Dutch ports	427
Annex 2	Table of significant developments in Norwegian history 1814-1914	429
Annex 3	Flaggsaken – the flag issue	433
Annex 4	Value of Norwegian krone (NOK) in terms of purchasing power from 1875	434
Annex 5	The speech of Bishop Hersleb Birkeland	435
Annex 6	Norwegian song texts and seamen's prayer	437
	Archival sources	442
	Bibliography	458
	Dutch summary	468
	Norwegian summary	471
	Index of names	474