

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Note from the Cover Artist: "Changing the Guard: From 'Semper Fi Panavision' to 'Insurgent Crowd-Sourcing'"	xvii
I. Tools of the Trade	1
1 I Like My Bots Like I Like My People: Weird, Mixed, Always Acting Chris Peterson	3
2 Performance, Labor, and Stardom in the Era of the Synthespian Mary Desjardins	11
3 How Global Is Hollywood? Division of Labor from a Prop-Making Perspective Patrick Vonderau	23
II. Being the Brand	37
4 Working the Booth: Promotional Models and the Value of Affective Labor Nina B. Huntemann	39

5	From Broadcast Design to 'On-Brand TV': Repositioning Expertise in the Promotional Screen Industries Catherine Johnson and Paul Grainge	46
6	Pop Stars Perform 'Gay' for the Male Gaze: The Production of Fauxmosexuality in Female Popular Music Performances and Its Representational Implications Kristin J. Lieb	59
III. Production Pedagogies		73
7	Craft, Creativity, Collaboration, and Connections: Educating Talent for Danish Television Drama Series Eva Novrup Redvall	75
8	Charity Appeals as 'Poverty Porn'? Production Ethics in Representing Suffering Children and Typhoon Haiyan Beneficiaries in the Philippines Jonathan Corpus Ong	89
9	Group Writing for Post-Socialist Television Eva Pjajčiková and Petr Szczepanik	105
IV. Putting the Public Back in Public Service		121
10	Public Service as Production Cultures: A Contingent, Conjunctural Compact James Bennett	123
11	Invisible Workers in an Invisible Medium: An Ethnographic Approach to Italian Public and Private Freelance Radio Producers Tiziano Bonini and Alessandro Gandini	138
12	Detachment, Pride, Critique: Professional Identity in Independent Factual Television Production in Great Britain and Germany Anna Zoellner	150
13	CBC ArtSpots and the Activation of Creative Citizenship Mary Elizabeth Luka	164

V. Transnational Circuits	173
14 Avenues of Participation and Strategies of Control: Video Film Production and Social Mobility in Ethiopia and Southern Nigeria Alessandro Jedlowski	175
15 From Experiencing Life to Life Experiences: Location Shooting Practices in Chinese and Taiwanese New Wave Cinemas Dennis Lo	187
16 The Crunch Heard 'Round the World: The Global Era of Digital Game Labor John Vanderhoef and Michael Curtin	196
VI. Redefining the Industry	211
17 "What Actually Matters": Identity, Individualization, and Aspiration in the Work of Glossy Magazine Production Nicholas Boston and Brooke Erin Duffy	213
18 The Trick of the Trades: Media Industry Studies and the American Comic Book Industry Alisa Perren	227
19 Co-Producing Content for Pan-Arab Children's TV: State, Business, and the Workplace Naomi Sakr and Jeanette Steemers	238
20 Keep Big Government out of Your Television Set: The Rhetoric of Self-Regulation before the Television Code Deborah L. Jaramillo	251
Select Bibliography	259
List of Contributors	265
Index	271