

Digital Literacy and Digital Inclusion

Information Policy and the Public Library

Kim M. Thompson, Paul T. Jaeger, Natalie
Greene Taylor, Mega Subramaniam, and
John Carlo Bertot

ROWMAN & LITTLEFIELD
Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Figures and Tables	ix
Acronyms	xi
Preface	xiii
1 Introduction and Overview	1
2 The Evolution of the Digital Society	15
3 The Struggle to Define Digital Literacy and Digital Inclusion	35
4 Public Policy, Literacy, and Inclusion	53
5 Libraries as Institutions of Digital Literacy and Inclusion	73
6 Models of Digital Inclusion: South Korea, the Netherlands, and Australia	85
7 Moving toward Digital Inclusion: Colombia, Honduras, and Ghana	111
8 Recommendations for Practice, Advocacy, and Research	127
References	145
Index	175
About the Authors	183