

Table of Contents

Introduction – Critical Reflections on the Literary-Historical Background and on the Relevant Scholarship .....	7
1. The Early Medieval Convent as a Center of Literary Activities The Canoness Hrotsvit of Gandersheim .....	51
2. Marie de France – A ‘Bestseller’ Author from the High Middle Ages A Cultural and Linguistic Mediator in Literary Terms .....	83
3. Julian of Norwich – One of those Mystics ... A Powerful Voice of Love in the English Late Middle Ages .....	119
4. Leonor López de Córdoba (1363–1430) A Female Author In-Between Genres. Self-Reflection and Literary Self-Projection in Late Medieval Castilian Literature .....	151
5. Christine de Pizan – A Woman Finds Herself Through the Poetic Word .....	183
6. Elisabeth von Nassau-Saarbrücken A Great German Female Novelist from the Fifteenth Century.....	225

7. Eleonore of Austria's Pontus und Sidonia (ca. 1450)
A Duchess Promotes Courtly Mores and Ethical Values Through a Translation Project Or: A Scottish Princess at an Austrian Court. Women as Cultural-Literary Ambassadors Across Europe .....	253
8. The German-Hungarian Writer Helene Kottanner: A Female Writer in the Center of Political Turmoil and Struggle
A Female Writer in the Center of Political Turmoil and Struggle .....	297
Epilogue Where do we stand, and how do we proceed from here?.....	337
Bibliography.....	357
Index .....	425