

Contents

Introduction

- 101 Soon gone, long forgotten: uncovering British responses to Belgian refugees during the First World War
Jacqueline Jenkinson

Articles

- 113 Belgian exiles, the British and the Great War: the Birtley Belgians of Elisabethville
Daniel Laqua
- 132 'Brave little Belgium' arrives in Huddersfield ... voluntary action, local politics and the history of international relief work
Rebecca Gill
- 151 The Pelabon Munitions works and the Belgian village on the Thames: community and forgetfulness in outer-metropolitan suburbs
Christophe Declercq and Helen Baker
- 171 Administering relief: Glasgow Corporation's support for Scotland's c. 20,000 Belgian refugees
Jacqueline Jenkinson
- 192 'Come and find sanctuary in Eire'. The experiences of Ireland's Belgian refugees during the First World War
William Buck
- 210 Finding Belgian refugees in Cymru1914.org: using digital resources for uncovering the hidden histories of the First World War in Wales
Lorna M. Hughes