

Contents

Introduction	1
1 Critique of Scholastic Reason	9
Implication and the implicit	9
The ambiguity of the scholastic disposition	12
The genesis of the scholastic disposition	16
The great repression	17
The scholastic point of honour	25
Radical doubt radicalized	28
POSTSCRIPT 1: Impersonal Confessions	33
POSTSCRIPT 2: Forgetting History	43
2 The Three Forms of Scholastic Fallacy	49
Scholastic epistemocentrism	50
Practical logics	54
The scholastic barrier	57
Digression: A critique of my critics	60
Moralism as egoistic universalism	65
The impure conditions of a pure pleasure	73
The ambiguity of reason	77
Digression: A 'habitual' limit to 'pure' thought	81
The supreme form of symbolic violence	83
POSTSCRIPT: How to Read an Author	85

3	The Historicity of Reason	93
	Violence and law	94
	Nomos and illusio	96
	Digression: Common sense	97
	Instituted points of view	99
	Digression: Differentiation of powers and circuits of legitimation	102
	A rationalist historicism	106
	The dual face of scientific reason	109
	Censorship of the field and scientific sublimation	111
	The anamnesis of origin	115
	Reflexivity and twofold historicization	118
	The universality of strategies of universalization	122
4	Bodily Knowledge	128
	Analysis situs	131
	The social space	134
	Comprehension	135
	Digression on scholastic blindness	137
	Habitus and incorporation	138
	A logic in action	142
	Coincidence	146
	The encounter of two histories	150
	The dialectic of positions and dispositions	155
	Mismatches, discordance and misfirings	159
5	Symbolic Violence and Political Struggles	164
	Libido and illusio	164
	Bodily constraint	168
	Symbolic power	172
	Twofold naturalization and its effects	179
	Practical sense and political labour	182
	The twofold truth	188
	Case study 1: The twofold truth of the gift	191
	Case study 2: The twofold truth of labour	202
6	Social Being, Time and the Sense of Existence	206
	The presence of the forth-coming	208
	'The order of successions'	213
	The relationship between expectations and chances	216
	Digression: Still more scholastic abstractions	218

A social experiment on time and power	221
The plurality of times	224
Time and power	227
Back to the relationship between expectations and chances	231
A margin of freedom	234
The question of justification	237
Symbolic capital	240
Subject Index	246
Name Index	253