

Contents

	Preface	vii
1	Rhetoric and the Origins of Consciousness	1
2	Oral Residue in Tudor Prose Style	23
3	Tudor Writings on Rhetoric, Poetic, and Literary Theory	48
4	Memory as Art	104
5	Latin Language Study as a Renaissance Puberty Rite	113
6	Ramist Classroom Procedure and the Nature of Reality	142
7	Ramist Method and the Commercial Mind	165
8	Swift on the Mind: Satire in a Closed Field	190
9	Psyche and the Geometers: Associationist Critical Theory	213
10	J. S. Mill's Pariah Poet	237
11	Romantic Difference and the Poetics of Technology	255
12	The Literate Orality of Popular Culture Today	284
13	Crisis and Understanding in the Humanities	304
	Index	337