

CONTENTS

	FOREWORD
vii	Studying Los Angeles's Urbanism Thomas W. Gaehtgens
	INTRODUCTION
1	Provoking New Perceptions of Los Angeles Wim de Wit and Christopher James Alexander
	TRANSFORMATIVE LANDSCAPES
13	The Deep Historical Morphology of the Los Angeles Metropolis Philip J. Ethington
23	Dreams Deferred Parks and Open Space William Deverell
35	All Freeways Lead to East Los Angeles Rethinking the L.A. Freeway and Its Meanings Eric Avila
49	Los Angeles after Dark The Incandescent City Sandy Isenstadt

	ENGAGING MODERNISM		ENGINEERED AUDACITY
65	“The Style of the Future”? The Vicissitudes of Modernism in Los Angeles Wim de Wit	163	LAX Designing for the Jet Age Vanessa R. Schwartz
81	Professional and Educational Discourse Training the Next Generation of Architects in Los Angeles Ken Breisch	185	Architecture Industry The L.A. Ten Stephen Phillips
97	Across the Pacific Los Angeles as a Catalyst for Architectural Change in East Asia Jeffrey W. Cody	201	Everyday Entertainment Post-Postwar Life in the San Gabriel Valley Chris Nichols
109	Latin America and Los Angeles Architectural Exchanges Hugo Segawa and Fernando Atique		PLATES
119	Preserving Modern Architecture in Los Angeles Susan Macdonald	213	Urban Networks
	DEVELOPING COMMUNITIES	222	Car Culture
127	Suburban Landscapes of Los Angeles Becky Nicolaides	233	Engines of Innovation
137	Domestic Speculation Architects and Builders in Postwar Los Angeles Dana Cuff	248	Community Magnets
149	Experimental Jet Set Aerospace and the Modern House in Los Angeles Dana Hutt	256	Residential Fabric
		286	Contributors
		289	Illustration Credits
		291	Acknowledgments
		294	Lenders and Contributors to the Exhibition
		295	Index