

CONTENTS

List of Maps	vii
Preface	ix
A Note on Names and Dates	xiii
Introduction: The Idea of the Mediterranean	1
Historians and the Sea	3 Approaches and Themes	10
1 The Waning of the Roman Mediterranean	12
Mare Nostrum: The Mediterranean under the Romans	14
A Christian Mediterranean	20 An Eastern and a Western Mediterranean	28
2 Forging New Traditions: Islamic and Christian Societies	33
An Arabic Mediterranean	34 Between New Imperial Capitals	41 Climate Change and Collapse	48
3 Early Medieval Economies and Cultures	54
Shifting Economies and Merchant Networks	55 Cultural Capitals and Intellectual Exchange	61 Religious Life: Conversion and Shared Sanctities	66 Religious Institutions: Monasteries and Ribats	71 The Rise of Religious Orthodoxies	74
4 Reshaping Political Communities: Christian and Muslim Holy Wars	81
New Contenders for Power from the Peripheries	82
Christian Ideas of Holy War and the First Crusade	87
A Second Wave of Holy Warriors in the East and West	91
New Monarchs, New States	98
5 Crossing Boundaries: Medieval Frontier Societies	105
Individual and Community Lives on the Frontier	107
Conversion, Persuasion, and Inquisition	110 Mobility,

	Accommodation, and Acculturation 116 Movement of Ideas and Intellectuals 122 Intellectual and Artistic Cultures at Court 127
6	Commerce, Conquest, and Travel Commercial Exchange and Innovations 132 Trade, Colonization, and the State 135 Competition, Conflict, and Crusade 139 Mobility of People 142 The Bubonic Plague 148	130
7	Crisis and Consolidation in State and Society New Contenders for Power 155 The Fourteenth-Century Crisis: Social and Economic Upheaval 161 Civil Wars and Centralizing Regimes 168 Transitions in the Eastern Mediterranean 172	154
8	The Renaissance Bazaar Networks of Exchange and Material Culture 180 Intellectual Discourses 184 Patronage and Power 198	178
9	Mediterranean Empires: Habsburg, Venetian, and Ottoman The Ottoman Empire 207 Habsburg Spain 216 Venice: City and Empire 226 Common Friends, Common Enemies 231	206
10	Life on the Frontier: Migration and Conversion, Piracy and Slaves Defining and Mapping Frontiers 238 Migration and Movement 239 Mediterranean Slavery 243 Corsairs 250 Renegades 254 Religion and Life on the Frontier 257	235
11	Mediterranean Transformations The Environment 261 Demography 263 Disease and Famine 264 Economy 269 Travel and Literature 276	259
12	The Waning of the Early Modern Mediterranean Russia 283 Napoleon 284 Corsairs and Slaves 288 Collecting the Mediterranean 291	282
	Guide to Resources 295
	Index 307
	Color illustrations follow page 240	