

Contents

Abbreviations for the Titles of Milton's Writings	page vii
Abbreviations for Titles of Periodicals, etc.	xi
Sonnets	339
Sonnet 1 (O Nightingale)	354
Sonnet 7 (How soon hath time)	362
Sonnet 8 (Captain or Colonel, or Knight in Arms)	374
Sonnet 9 (Lady that in the prime of earliest youth)	378
Sonnet 10 (Daughter to that good Earl)	383
Sonnet 11 (A Book was writ of late call'd Tetrachordon)	387
Sonnet 12 (On the same (I did but prompt the age))	393
Sonnet 13 (To Mr. H. Lawes, on his Aires)	399
Sonnet 14 (When Faith and Love which parted from thee never)	406
Sonnet 15 (Fairfax, whose name in armes through Europe rings)	410
Sonnet 16 (Cromwell, our cheif of men)	416
Sonnet 17 (Vane, young in yeares, but in sage counsell old)	426
Sonnet 18 (On the late Massacher in Piemont)	431
Sonnet 19 (When I consider how my light is spent)	442
Sonnet 20 (Lawrence of vertuous Father vertuous Son)	470
Sonnet 21 (Cyriack, whose Grandsire on the Royal Bench)	477
Sonnet 22 (Cyriack, this three years day these eyes)	481
Sonnet 23 (Methought I saw my late espoused Saint)	486

Contents

The Fifth Ode of Horace. Lib. I	page 502
On the new forcers of Conscience under the Long Parliament	508
Arcades	519
Lycidas	544
I. Date, Circumstances, and Text	544
II. The Pastoral Elegy	549
III. Criticism	565
IV. Notes	636