

Contents

Acknowledgements	xiii
Preface to the second edition	xiv
Chronology	xvii
Introduction: The peculiar conversation	1
1 Freud's fundamental rule	2
2 An adequate moral psychology	10
3 The 'immorality' of psychoanalysis	12
4 Truthfulness	14
5 The egalitarian impulse	18
6 The journey of a human life	21
7 A philosophical introduction to a non-philosopher	22
Notes	25
One
Interpreting the unconscious	29
1 Analysis of the psyche	29
2 A second mind?	30
3 Fear and trembling and the couch	35
4 The non-mysterious unconscious	44
5 How the unconscious escapes our notice	46
6 The unconscious is timeless	48

x Contents

7 The unconscious and the fundamental question	53
Further reading	56
Notes	56

Two

Sex, Eros and life 61

1 What's sex got to do with it?	61
2 How sex hides as physical pain	66
3 Abandoning the seduction theory	73
4 A theory of sexuality	74
5 Infantile sexuality	82
6 Eros and practical wisdom	85
Further reading	88
Notes	88

Three

The interpretation of dreams 94

1 The royal road to the unconscious	94
2 Principles of dream interpretation	96
3 Freud's self-interpretation	99
4 Dreams as activity	106
5 In dreams begin responsibilities	109
6 Primary process	110
7 The fulfillment of a wish	113
8 The field of dreams	117
Further reading	118
Notes	119

Four

Transference 122

1 Introduction of the concept	122
2 Dora	125
3 A special class of mental structures	127
4 Transference as the breakdown of a world	129
5 Transference and the interpretation of dreams	133

6 From repeating to remembering	136
Further reading	145
Notes	145

Five

Principles of mental functioning 148

1 The pleasure principle and reality principle	148
2 Turning away from reality	150
3 Virtue and neurtue	154
4 Beyond the pleasure principle	156
5 Compulsive repetition	159
6 The death drive	162
Further reading	163
Notes	164

Six

The structure of the psyche and the birth of 'object' relations 167

1 Mourning and Melancholia	167
2 Self and other	171
3 The psychological birth of the infant	172
4 Identification	176
5 The Oedipus complex	178
6 The superego	180
7 Genealogy	182
Further reading	185
Notes	186

Seven

Morality and religion 190

1 The case against morality	190
2 The morality system	196
3 Pleasure versus happiness	197
4 Critique of religious belief	199
5 The illusion of a future	202

6 Primal crime	205
Further reading	208
Notes	208
Conclusion: Freud's legacy	211
Notes	215
Glossary	216
Bibliography	223
Index	234