

Jonathan Greenberg • Nathan Waddell
Editors

Brave New World:
Contexts and Legacies

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

1	Introduction	1
	Jonathan Greenberg and Nathan Waddell
2	Brave New World as a Modern Utopia	15
	Patrick Parrinder
3	Signs of the T: Aldous Huxley, High Art, and American Technocracy	31
	Nathan Waddell
4	‘That Learning Were Such a Filthy Thing’: Education, Literacy and Social Control in Huxley’s Brave New World	51
	Claudia Rosenhan
5	The Pleasures of Dystopia	69
	Laura Frost
6	Huxley and Reproduction	89
	Aaron Matz

7	What Huxley Got Wrong Jonathan Greenberg	109
8	Brave New World and Vanity Fair : A ‘Draught that Will Make You [...] Lighthearted and Gay’ Carey Snyder	127
9	The Brave New World of Mothering Kathryn Southworth	149
10	Ethics in the Late Anthropocene Keith Leslie Johnson	169
11	‘My Hypothetical Islanders’: The Role of Islands in Aldous Huxley’s Brave New World and Island Jerome Meckier	189
12	‘Words Without Reason’: State Power and the Moral Life in Brave New World Andrzej Gąsiorzek	211
	Bibliography	227
	Index	245