

Contents

Contributors	iii
Preface	vii

I. Applying Psychological Knowledge to the School Setting

1. A Psychodynamic View of the Learning Process. Justin D. Call	1
2. Formal and Informal Measures of Thinking. Barbara Biber	18
3. Current Advances and Problems in Child Therapy. Peter B. Neubauer	36
4. Groups in Guidance and Treatment of Adolescents in a School Setting. S. R. Slavson and Haim G. Ginott	56
5. Teaching Psychology in the High School. T. L. Engle	76
6. The School Mental Health Program. Elton B. McNeil, Richard L. Cutler and William C. Morse	102
7. Psychological Aspects of Vocational Counseling. Marion S. Steel	123
8. Problems in Curriculum and Action Research. William H. Bristow	141

II. Psychological Perspectives in Two Groups of Deviant Children

9. The School Psychologist and the Visually Handicapped Child. Berthold Lowenfeld	160
10. Problems of the Orthopedically Handicapped Child. Chester A. Swinyard	186

III. Organizational and Administrative Problems in School Psychology

11. Structuring School Psychological Services: Internal and Interdisciplinary Considerations. Victor B. Elkin	200
12. Problems of Clinical Supervision. Ralph H. Tindall	227
13. An In-Service Psychotherapy Training Program for School Psychologists. Doris Schulman Golden	249
14. The Administrative and Professional Functions of the School Psychologist. Bertha M. Luckey	266
15. Training Programs in School Psychology. Donald G. Ferguson	287
16. The School Psychologist and Confidentiality of School Records. Gilbert M. Trachtman	306
17. Certification of School Psychologists. Walter L. Hodges	331
Index of Names	344
Index of Subjects	348