

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Brief Reference Chronology of Peacock's Life and Writings	xiii

I POETRY: THE COURTED MUSE

1 Introduction	3
2 Boyhood Verse and Palmyra	9
3 Earnest Tidings: The Genius of the Thames and The Philosophy of Melancholy	24
4 From The Dilettanti to Rhododaphne	37
5 Later Verse	55

2 ESSAYS AND MISCELLANEOUS PROSE: THE WELL-STORED PAST

1 Peacock and the Informal Essay: Introductory	73
2 'The Four Ages of Poetry' and Peacock's Literary Criticism	78
3 Politics of Scepticism and Faith	111
4 Music Reviewer for the Examiner	121
5 Personal Writings and a Theory of Biography	136
6 An English Gastronomer	148

3 THE NOVELS: IN PURSUIT OF COMEDY

1 Backgrounds for Peacock's Comedy	159
2 Headlong Hall : 'the Wand of Enchantment'	174
3 'Calidore' and Melincourt : Hints from Spenser and Voltaire	190
4 Nightmare Abbey : 'a Little Daylight on the Atrabilarious'	207
5 Maid Marian : the 'Masked Ball'	223
6 The Misfortunes of Elphin : a Lord of Misrule and the Magic of Bards	239
7 Crotchet Castle : 'the Modern Athenians'	254
8 Later Fragments and Gryll Grange : a Nod to Aristophanes	270
Notes	287
Bibliographical Note	317
Index	319