

Contents

Preface	vii
Notes on the Contributors	viii
1 Introduction Herbert Döring and Gordon Smith	1
2 Responsible Party Government in the German Political System Peter Pulzer	9
3 The Rebirth of Democracy: Political Parties in Germany, 1945–49 Martin McCauley	38
4 The German Volkspartei and the Career of the Catch-All Concept Gordon Smith	59
5 Party Government and Party State Kenneth Dyson	77
6 Problems of Party Government in West Germany – A British Perspective William E. Paterson	101
7 Institutional Structures and Political Culture M. Rainer Lepsius	116
8 The Government/Opposition Dimension and the Development of the Party System in the 1970s: the Reappearance of Conflictual Politics Geoffrey Pridham	130

9	Parties and the Conditions of Political Leadership Nevil Johnson	154
10	The German Electorate: Old Cleavages and New Political Conflicts Franz Urban Pappi and Michael Terwey	174
11	A Crisis of the Party System? – An Assessment Herbert Döring	197
	Index	220