

Contents

Introduction	ix
Timeline of the Libyan Crisis/War (2011)	xxv
List of Abbreviations	xxxix
List of Contributors	xxxv

PART I. THE UN VETO POWERS' PERSPECTIVES

1. US Intervention in the Libyan Civil War: Are There Lessons to be Learned? Tom J. Farer	3
2. The War in Libya: The Political Rationale for France François Heisbourg	25
3. The UK Political Rationale for Intervention and its Consequences Christina J. M. Goulter	45
4. Russia: The Principle of Non-Intervention and the Libya Case Ann Karin Larssen	67
5. The Political Rationale of China's Deliberately Limited Role in the Libyan Civil War Sheng Ding	86

PART II. THE ARAB PERSPECTIVES

6. Libya & the Arab League Ranj Alaaldin	105
7. The Rationale and Implications of Qatar's Intervention in Libya Kristian Coates Ulrichsen	118
8. The Political Rationale and Implications of the United Arab Emirates' Military Involvement in Libya Jean-Marc Rickli	134

PART III. THE SCANDINAVIAN PERSPECTIVES

9. The Political Rationale and Implications of Norway's Military Involvement in Libya Dag Henriksen	155
---	-----

10. The Swedish Decision to Participate in Operation Unified Protector Robert Egnell	174
11. The Danish Libya Campaign: Out in Front in Pursuit of Pride, Praise, and Position Peter Viggo Jakobsen	192
PART IV. NATO, INTERNATIONAL LAW, AND RESPONSIBILITY TO PROTECT (R2P)
12. The Role and Impact on NATO Ryan C. Hendrickson	211
13. Libya, R2P, and the United Nations Thomas G. Weiss	228
14. The Intervention in Libya in a Legal Perspective: R2P and International Law Sigmund Simonsen	245
PART V. THE AFRICAN PERSPECTIVES
15. The Role and Impact on the African Union Linnéa Gelot	269
16. The Impact of the War on Libya George Joffé	286
Index	305