

Contents

About the Editors	7
About the Authors	9
Phillip Tolliday Introduction to the Present Volume	13
Phillip Tolliday Between a Rock and a Hard Place The Politics of Indigenous Suffering in Australia	23
Deborah Stevens New Zealand's Te Tiriti o Waitangi-Treaty of Waitangi: The past, contemplated in the present, is a guide to the future	43
Priyambudi Sulistiyanto and Sentot Setyasiswanto Still Seeking Truth and Reconciliation for the 1965 Victims: Is it possible?	69
Bo-Hyug Suh Two Koreas' Efforts of Reconciliation After 1990	87
Ann-Sophie Schoepfel Dynamics of Justice in Indochina (1944–1946): France's Commitment to the Rule of Law and the Punishment of Japanese War Crimes	103
Farrah Tek and Christoph Sperfeldt Justice and Truth-Seeking for Survivors of Gender-based Violence under the Khmer Rouge	125
Jude Lal Fernando Is Sri Lanka in a Post-Conflict or Post-War Situation? The Way Forward: Regime Change or Transformation of the State? . . .	139

Maung Maung Yin
Myanmar in Transition: Problems and Prospect
The Strategic Location of Myanmar	173
Martin Leiner
Thinking differently about Identity and Harmony – The Potential of Asian thinking for Reconciliation
Is reconciliation a topic for East Asia?	183
Annette Weinke
Reconciling through International (Criminal) Law? The Nuremberg Trials and their Impact on Concepts and Practices of Reconciliation in Postwar Germany	205
Liu Liangjian
Thinking through Kang Youwei’s Doctrine of datong (Great Unity) and World Political Order in a Glocal Age	219
Leo D. Lefebure
Dharma and Reconciliation: Thich Nhat Hanh, Nikkyo Niwano, and the Quest for Peace	237
Seiko Mimaki
Norm Dynamics and Reconciliation-Japan, US, and East Asia	257
Register of Illustrations	279
List of Abbreviations	281
Index	285