

Contents

Notes on the contributors	IX
Introduction
European rural peripheries revalued? Introduction to this volume Annett Steinführer, Anja Reichert-Schick, Ingo Mose and Ulrike Grabski-Kieron	2
1 At the edge? Rural peripheries of and in Europe
Community land ownership and rural resilience: A case study from the Highlands and Islands of Scotland Frank Rennie and Suzannah-Lynn Billing	30
The dynamics of hyper-rural areas in France: New economic bases for rural peripheries Samuel Depraz	47
The Unbalanced Welfare of Italian Fragile Rural Areas Giorgio Osti	64
2 European policies and their impacts on regional governance and participation
Changing relationships between local governance and local government: an historical perspective from the Leader programme in Ireland Mary Cawley	88
Regional governance in the context of LEADER local action groups in the Warmińsko-Mazurskie Voivodship (Poland) Marta Jacuniak-Suda	111
Nature conservation-oriented governance processes in dynamic border areas in Germany and the Netherlands: reflections on regional development in formerly peripheral regions Ulrike Grabski-Kieron	150
Securitisation from below? Civil engagement within processes of bordering in internal EU borderlands Kristine Beurskens, Judith Miggelbrink and Christoph Creutziger	172
3 Exogenous and endogenous impulses to rural revitalisation
The village as a hotel. Tourism-oriented revitalisation of rural settlements: a good practice concept for European peripheries? Anja Reichert-Schick	198
Rural tourism re-interpreted: how tourist entrepreneurs implement different notions of rurality Stefan Kordel and Tobias Weidinger	229

Intra-European lifestyle migration of German (pre)retirees to rural Spain: a contribution to rural development in times of the financial and real estate crisis? The migrants' point of view Tobias Weidinger and Stefan Kordel	248
Art for the village: On the linkages between public and participatory art and village development in the rural periphery of Germany Theresa Dietl	272
4 Renewable energies, climate change and sustainable mobility
Aligning local adaptive land use management in coastal regions with European policies on climate adaptation and rural development Leena Karrasch and Thomas Klenke	296
Rural resilience and renewable energy in North-East Groningen, the Netherlands: in search of synergies Rozanne Spijkerboer, Elen-Maarja Trelle and Christian Zuidema	313
Climate change mitigation and energy concepts: also an issue for rural areas? Experiences of Communities in Northwest Germany Peter Schaal	342
Local mobility for local supply: Recommendations for municipalities and local suppliers in rural peripheries Werner Dietl, Andreas Friedwagner, Benedikt Hahn, Martin Heintel, Thomas Langthaler, Alice Wanner and Norbert Weixlbaumer	359
How to counteract the increasing discrepancy between cost causers and payers in the total costs of individual mobility in rural peripheries? A case study in Germany Henry Lewerentz	385