

Contents

Preface	vii
Abbreviations	xiv

Introduction

The Walton Tradition	3
--------------------------------	---

Part I: The Earliest Life and Its Revisions

1. The Life and Death of Dr Donne —1640	19
2. The Life of John Donne —1658	68
3. The Second Revision—1670	97
4. The Third Revision—1675	110

Part II: "My Honoured Friend, Sir Henry Wotton"

5. The Life of Sir Henry Wotton —1651	129
6. The Four Revisions of the Life of Wotton	164

Part III: The Judicious Life of Mr. Hooker

7. Background: The Restored Clergy and Their Adopted Champion	197
8. The Authorized Life of Hooker —1665	226
9. The Revisions—1666, 1670, 1675	281

Contents

*Part IV: The Compleat Parson, or,
The Religious Man's Occupation*

10. The "Almost Incredible Story" of George Herbert 301

*Part V: The Diocesan and the Dissenters:
History and Augury*

11. The Remarkable Life of Dr. Sanderson 365

Conclusion

- Walton, the Artist as Biographer 483

Appendixes and Index

- A. The Date of Walton's Notes in His Copy of Eusebius 499
B. Walton and the Poems about Donne's Seal 503
C. Pages 1-136 in Hooker's Works, 1661-1662 507
D. The Publication of the Life of Herbert 510
E. Walton's Debt to John Ferrar and Edmund Duncon 513
F. Walton on Herbert's Resignation of His Fellowship 516
Index 521