

CONTENTS

- I. Browne and His Critics, 1
- II. Sir Thomas Browne, 12
An Apology for Privacy / The Gentle Controversialist / Tolerance and Faith / The Necessity for Heresy / An Oh Altitudo for the Soul / The Contemplation of Mysteries / The Worlds of the Spirit and the Soul / The Fame of Dr. Browne and His Book
- III. Sir Kenelm Digby, 57
The "Compleat Gentleman" Responds / Bodies and Souls Redefined / The Chain of Causation / "Little Knotty Peeces of Particular Sciences" / God's Grace and Man's Virtue / Conclusions for a Long Night's Work / A Divine Materialism
- IV. Alexander Ross, 122
The "Perpetual Barker" Responds / Tolerance Subverted / Strictures on the Body and Soul / The Attack on Intuition and Metaphor / The Literalism of Faith / The Certainty of Providence / The Rejection of Introspection / The Neglect of a "Maturer Judgement"
- V. The Criticisms, on Balance, 169
- Bibliography, 189
- Index, 201