

Contents

INTRODUCTION	I
PART I. FROM LIBERAL RESTRAINTS TO NEOLIBERAL INCLUSION
ONE From Liberal to Neoliberal Futures of Disability: Rights-Based Inclusionism, Ablenationalism, and the Able-Disabled	35
TWO Curricular Cripistemologies; or, Every Child Left Behind	63
PART II. THE BIOPOLITICS OF IN(TER)DEPENDENT DISABILITY CINEMA
THREE Gay Pasts and Disability Future(s) Tense: Heteronormative Trauma and Parasitism in Midnight Cowboy	97
FOUR The Politics of Atypicality: International Disability Film Festivals and the Productive Fracturing of Identity	115
FIVE Permutations of the Species: Independent Disability Cinema and the Critique of Ablenationalism	136
PART III. MEDICAL OUTLIERS: NAVIGATING THE DISABILITY BIO(POLITICAL) SPHERE
SIX Corporeal Subcultures and the Specter of Biopolitics	155

SEVEN The Capacities of Incapacity in Antinormative Novels of Embodiment	180
AFTERWORD Disability as Multitude: Reworking Nonproductive Labor Power	204
Notes	223
Filmography	237
Works Cited	239
Index	253

Illustrations following page 114