

CONTENTS

XI	"I hesitate which word to take, as I can take but few and each must be the chiefest . . ."
	LETTERS 627-878 [1880-1883]	653
XII	". . . a Letter is a joy of Earth — it is denied the Gods."
	LETTERS 879-1045 [1884-1886]	807
	PROSE FRAGMENTS	909
	APPENDIXES
	1. Biographical Sketches of Recipients of Letters and of Persons Mentioned in Them	933
	2. A Note on the Domestic Help	959
	3. Recipients of Letters	961
	INDEX	977
	INDEX OF POEMS	995