

Table of Contents

STELLA BUTTER, SARAH HEINZ & NORA KUSTER
Introduction: Literature and Subject Cultures	1

I. Reckwitz' Theory of Subject Cultures: Concepts and Debates

MAURUS ROLLER
Reckwitz' Theory of Subject Cultures:
Fundamental Concepts and the Issue of Individuality	11
NORA KUSTER
Reckwitz' Theory of Subject Cultures: Chronology and Sequence.....	23
ELISABETH S. MAUBACH
"Smiling Girls and Rosy Boys, Come and Buy my Little Toys":
On Postmodern Subjectivity in its Double Form of the Creative Consumer	39
STEFAN GLOMB
The Hybrid Individual: Reading Literature as a Critical
Commentary on Reckwitz' Theory of Subject Cultures	49

II. Literary Case Studies: Subject Cultures in the English Novel

MAURUS ROLLER
Samuel Richardson's Pamela : The Aristocratic Subject and the Ascendancy of Middle-Class Culture	81
MEINHARD WINKGENS
Re-Reading David Copperfield as a Polysemic Imaginative Exploration of Bourgeois Subject Culture and its Supplementary Romantic Other	109
SARAH HEINZ
The Ambivalent Bourgeois: Sherlock Holmes and
late Victorian Subjectivities in Detective Fiction	155

NORA KUSTER

Bringing Down the House: De/Constructing 20th-Century
Middle-Class Subjectivity in J.G. Ballard's High-Rise 193

MARIE-THERES WIEME

The Quest for the "the true exercise of freedom":
A.S. Byatt's Possession and The Children's Book as Critical Origin Stories of Creative Subjectivity 209

TATJANA HIMMEL

Julian Barnes' England, England: The Postmodern Subject between Authenticity and Performance 235

STELLA BUTTER

Representations of Ideal Homes in English Culture:
Gracious Living and the Creative Self in Matthew Reynolds' Designs for a Happy Home 251