

Contents

Acknowledgements and Spelling Conventions VII

List of Tables VIII

List of Abbreviations IX

Introduction 1

Ecclesiastical History in a Scandinavian Context 3

Historiography and the 'Boring' Fourteenth Century 4

Methodology and Approaches 7

1 Iceland in the Fourteenth Century 10

Iceland and the Kings of Norway 11

The Aristocracy in Iceland and the Administration of Iceland 16

The Icelandic Church 1264–1300 21

Defining the Period 27

2 Sources and Authorship: The Intellectual Milieu 30

Contemporary Sagas in a Fourteenth-Century Context 31

Bishops' Sagas 35

Árna saga 38

Guðmundar saga D (Guðmundar saga Arngríms Brandssonar) 40

Jóns þátrr Halldórssonar and Exemplary Material 42

Annals 47

Skálholtsannáll 53

Brot af Skálholtsannáll 54

Lögmannsannáll 54

Flateyjarannáll 55

Gottskálksannáll 56

Documentary Sources 57

Authorship and Intellectual Milieu 59

3 The Icelandic Church after 1264 62

Parish and Local Structures 64

Staðir 67

Monasteries 69

Jurisdiction 72

Church Officials within Iceland 74

Iceland and Niðarós 83

Foreign Bishops 92

4	Elite Priests in Iceland	96
	Staðir, Church Centres, and Benefices	97
	Elite Priests in the Norwegian Age (1269–1400)	99
	Staðir and Clerical Income	109
	Elite Clerical Social Networks	118
	Archiepiscopal Benefices	126
	Elite Identity: Clerical Identity	129
	Clerical Concubinage, Fostering, and the Children of Clerics	130
	Clerical Violence and Conflict	136
	Conclusion	146
5	Norway and Elite Icelandic Clerical Identity	148
	Iceland and Niðarós: Introduction	149
	Icelandic Clergy in Norway	153
	Icelandic Perceptions of Norway and Niðarós	162
	Conclusion	174
	Conclusion	177
	Appendices
	Appendix 1: Bishops of Skálholt and Hólar, 1056–1550	185
	Appendix 2: The officiales and ráðsmenn of Skálholt and Hólar	187
	Bibliography	191
	Index	203