

CONTENT

- 4 From ‘nothing’ to ‘something’ (until the 9th century)
14 A fishing boat of the ancestors
16 An enamoured count who killed a bear
- 18 From ‘something’ to city (10th to 12th century)
24 With God as my witness
28 The relic of the Holy Blood
- 32 From city to European city (13th to 15th century)
48 ‘The Flemish lion must not fall asleep’
50 A canon at the doctor’s office
52 A ‘Burgundian’ feast
54 Long necks on the canals
56 ‘Egidius, waer bestu bleven’
- 60 From European city to regional city (16th to 18th century)
74 The Athens of the North
76 The Black Arts
78 Cleansed by fire
80 A ‘cow barn’
82 A Spanish mayor
84 The number of the Beast
86 Rich bloodsuckers
88 A cathedral under the hammer
- 92 From regional city to ‘dead’ city (19th century)
102 Lace with a dark corner
104 ‘I only did my duty’
106 ‘Fruited potatoes’
108 ‘A party for all and sundry?’
- 110 From ‘dead’ city to city in motion (20th century until now)
126 ‘We sell booze here’
130 ‘Let’s give the dragon’s tail a damned good twist’
134 For the soul of the child
136 ‘A Belgian is planning to invade England’
138 ‘Bruges’ derby’
140 The end of all discussions