

Contents

Preface	XIII
PART I. CRIME
1. Classical Theory and the Idea of Crime	3
2. The Nature of Crime	15
PART II. CRIMINALITY
3. Biological Positivism	47
4. Psychological, Economic, and Sociological Positivism	64
5. The Nature of Criminality: Low Self-Control	85
PART III. APPLICATIONS OF THE THEORY
6. Criminal Events and Individual Propensities: Age, Gender, and Race	123
7. The Social Consequences of Low Self-Control	154
8. Culture and Crime	169
9. White-Collar Crime	180
10. Organization and Crime	202
PART IV. RESEARCH AND POLICY
11. Research Design and Measurement	217
12. Implications for Public Policy	255
References Cited	277
Index	293