

Contents

1	The Domain of Social Ontology	1
1.1	Conflicting Intuitions: Antigone's Paradox	1
1.2	Ontology	11
1.3	Social Ontology	22
1.3.1	The Stipulative Model and the Essentialist Model	22
1.3.2	The Origins of the Essentialist Model	27
1.3.3	Contra Hume: Reinach's Essentialism	29
	Bibliography	52
2	Theories	57
2.1	"P-Ontologies": People, Groups, Relations	57
2.1.1	Common Commitment and Plural Action	58
2.2	"I-Ontologies": Facts, Institutions, Procedures	68
2.2.1	The Relational Character of Social Ontology	68
2.2.2	The Fundamentals: Assignment of Function, Collective Intentionality, Constitutive Rules	70
2.2.3	Rules and the Normative Issue	84
2.3	"O-Ontologies" and the Role of Documents	90
2.3.1	The (Social) World in Eleven Theses	90
2.3.2	The Ontology of Social Objects	95

2.3.3	From the Letter to the Document: The Case of the European Community	96
	Bibliography	103
3	State and Justice	105
3.1	That Thing Called State	105
3.2	Transgenerational Actions	112
3.2.1	Epistemology	113
3.2.2	Ontology	116
3.2.3	Three Theories of the State: A Comparison	122
3.2.4	The Prejudice Against the State: Anarchist Theories	134
3.2.5	Social Contract 2.0	145
	Bibliography	153
4	A Cross-Section of Power	157
4.1	States and Meta-States	157
4.2	Jonas' Half-World	158
4.2.1	Energy	160
4.2.2	Power	163
4.3	The Macrostructure of Institutional Reality	167
4.3.1	Document Bureaucracy	167
4.3.2	Identity	178
	Bibliography	187
	Bibliography	189
	Index	191