

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

THE PROTECTORATE.

		PAGE
28 Jan., 1547.	The government at Edward VI.'s accession	1
	Hertford and Lisle	2
	The privy council	3
	Henry VIII.'s will	5
	Appointment of a protector	6
31 Jan., 1547.	The government remodelled	7
5 March.	Deposition of Lord-chancellor Wriothesley	8
	Foreign affairs	9
	Relations with Scotland	10
	The protector's policy	11
10 Sept.	The battle of Pinkie	12
	Constitutional liberty	13
	Religious changes	14
	Opposition of Gardiner and Bonner	15
Nov.-Dec.	Repeal of treason and heresy laws	16
	Abolition of episcopal election	17
1545, 1547.	Dissolution of the chantries	18
	Its effect upon education	20
1548.	The influx of foreign reformers	21
	The government and the church service	22
1549.	The first Book of Common Prayer	23-24

CHAPTER II.

A YEAR OF TROUBLES.

	Resistance to ecclesiastical uniformity	25
June, 1549.	Risings in Devon and Cornwall	26
July-Aug.	The economic revolution; inclosures	28-29
	The growth of capitalism	30
	Attitude of Tudor governments	31
	The "commonwealth party"	32
July.	Kett's rebellion	33
	The camp at Mousehold Heath	34
26 Aug.	The battle of Dussindale	35
	Results of the movement	36

	PAGE
1547-49. The lord high admiral, Thomas Seymour	37
20 March, 1549. His execution	38
1548-49. Disputes with France	39
8 Aug., 1549. War declared	40
Sept. The cabal against the protector	41
Oct. Somerset's deposition	42
Fears of religious reformers	42-43
Nov.-Dec. Political reaction and social repression	43
New treason laws	43
Legalisation of inclosures	44
The new government and the bishops	45
Jan.-Feb., 1550. The fall of the catholics	45
6 Feb. Somerset's release from the Tower	46

CHAPTER III.

SOMERSET AND WARWICK.

March, 1550. Peace made with France; Boulogne restored	47
French predominance	48
The new Ordinal	49
1550-51. Deprivation of Bishops Bonner, Heath, and Day	49
Gardiner's trial	50
Controversy on the Real Presence	51
Hooper and the vestments	52
The new bishops	52
Ridley's crusade against altars	53
Resistance of the Lady Mary	54-55
Domestic discontent	55-56
Creation of lord-lieutenancies	56
June, 1551. Debasement of the coinage	56
England's ill-repute abroad	57
Rivalry between Somerset and Warwick	57
Successive prorogations of parliament	58
Privy conspiracies	58
Warwick's influence over Edward VI.	59
Edward released from the trammels of minority	60
Oct., 1551. Warwick created Duke of Northumberland	60
Somerset's second arrest	61
His alleged plot	62
1 Dec.-22 Jan., 1552. His trial and execution	63-64

CHAPTER IV.

THE PROTESTANT REFORMATION.

Jan., 1552. Parliament reassembled	66
Its hostility to the government	67
Failure of the religious compromise of 1549	68
The second Book of Common Prayer	69
The "black rubric"	70

	PAGE
Attempted reform of the canon law	71
Cranmer's Forty-two Articles	72
Spoliation of the church	73
Feb., 1553. A new parliament elected	74
Government interference	75
March. Parliamentary legislation	76
Northumberland and the protestants	77
Knox and Ridley	77
England's position	78
6 July. Death of Edward VI.; his character	78-79

CHAPTER V.

NORTHUMBERLAND'S CONSPIRACY.

1551-53. Suspicions of Northumberland's designs	80
His unpopularity	81
Candidates for the succession	82-83
June, 1553. Edward VI.'s "Devisé"	84
Northumberland's measures	85
The attitude of the lawyers	86
Dynastic marriages	86
French support of Northumberland	87
Mary's position	88
July. Her escape from Northumberland's toils	89
10 July. Proclamation of Queen Jane	89
11 July. Mary's challenge	90
13 July. Northumberland goes north to meet her	90
14-16 July. Rising of Mary's friends	91
16-18 July. Intrigues in London	91
19 July. The council declares for Mary	92
16 July. Northumberland at Cambridge	92
17-18 July. His failure against Mary	93
20 July. He proclaims her Queen	93
21 July. His arrest	93

CHAPTER VI.

THE TRIUMPH OF MARY.

3 Aug. Mary's entry into London	94
Her privy council	94-95
Changes in the government	96
18 Aug. Northumberland's trial	97
His conversion to Roman catholicism	97
22 Aug. His execution and character	98
Mary's tentative religious measures	99
13 Aug. Protestant turbulence	100
Aug.-Sept. Arrest of Cranmer, Latimer, Hooper, and Coverdale	100

	PAGE
	Flight of the foreign divines 100
Sept.	Catholic bishops restored 101
	Election of Mary's first parliament 101
Oct.	Repeal of treason laws and of Edward VI.'s ecclesiastical legislation 102
30 Oct.	Mary's proposed marriage with Philip of Spain 103-105
Nov.-Dec.	French opposition and English discontent 105-106
Jan., 1554.	Risings in the Midlands and the West 107
	Wyatt's rebellion 107
29 Jan.	Norfolk's failure to suppress the rising 109
3-6 Feb.	Wyatt at Southwark 109
6 Feb.	He crosses the Thames at Kingston 110
7 Feb.	His surrender at Temple Bar 110
12 Feb.	Execution of Lady Jane Grey 111

CHAPTER VII.

THE RESTORATION OF THE CHURCH.

	Results of Wyatt's failure 112
	Foreign connivance 113
	Divergences in Mary's council 113
	The Politiques and the catholics 114
	Charles V. and Cardinal Pole 114
	Paget and Gardiner 115
	Courtenay and Elizabeth 116
March, 1554.	Renard presses for Elizabeth's execution 116
18 March.	Elizabeth sent to the Tower 116
May.	Her position and removal to Woodstock 117
March, 1554.	Mary's second parliament elected 118
April.	Her marriage with Philip sanctioned 118
	Defeat of Gardiner's ecclesiastical bills 119
	Strife between the lay and clerical parties 120
June.	Popular hostility to the Spanish match 122
25 July.	Marriage of Philip and Mary 123
1554.	Religious reaction; married clergy deprived 123-124
	Mary's bishops 124
	Cardinal Pole 125
Oct.-Nov.	Elections to Mary's third parliament 126
Nov.	Negotiations for reconciliation with Rome 127
21 Nov.	Repeal of Pole's attainder 128
30 Nov.	England absolved 128
Dec.	Re-enactment of the heresy laws 129
Jan., 1555.	New treason laws 129
	Repeal of Henry VIII.'s anti-papal legislation 130
	Pole's failure to secure the restoration of church property 130
	The popular attitude towards religion 132
	Responsibility for the persecution 133

CHAPTER VIII.

THE PROTESTANT MARTYRS.

	PAGE
	Miscalculations of the government 135
Feb., 1555.	The earliest victims, Rogers, Hooper, Taylor, and Saunders 136
March.	The first layman burnt 137
30 March.	Bishop Ferrar 137
8 May.	Burning dead heretics. Tooley's case 138 Bucer, Fagius, and Peter Martyr's wife 139
1 July.	John Bradford 140
23 Aug.	The first woman burnt 140
16 Oct.	Ridley and Latimer 141
April-Aug.	Mary's hopes of issue disappointed 142 Frays between English and Spaniards 142
4 Sept.	Philip's departure 143
Sept.-Oct.	Elections to Mary's fourth parliament 143 Its hostility to the government 143-144
13 Nov.	Gardiner's death 144
3 Dec.	The question of first-fruits and tenths 145 Government bills rejected 147 Efforts of the crown to check parliamentary in- dependence 148 A "Place Bill" promoted by the commons 148 Philip's attempts to secure coronation 149 Parliament and the crown 149
9 Dec.	Parliament dissolved 149
18 Dec.	Persecution renewed 150
Sept., 1555.	Cranmer's trial 150
Feb.-March, 1556.	His recantations 151-152
21 March.	His execution 153 Foxe's "Book of Martyrs" 153 Geographical distribution of the persecution 155 Responsibility of Bonner, Mary, the pope, and the council 156

CHAPTER IX.

PHILIP AND MARY.

	Philip's position in England 158
	English interests subordinated to Spanish 159
	Maritime enterprise checked 160
	France encourages English discontent 160
March, 1556.	Uvedale's and Dudley's plots 161 The turning point of Mary's reign 162
Sept.	Philip II.'s breach with the papacy 163
Feb., 1557.	His attempts to involve England in his war with France 163
April.	Stafford's invasion 164
7 June.	War declared between England and France 165

	PAGE
10 Aug.	The battle of St. Quentin 165
April-June.	Pole deprived of his legatine authority 165
Sept.-Nov.	Forced loans, desertion, and mutinies 166
	Philip refuses to declare war between the Netherlands and Scotland 166
	The English Pale in France 167
Dec., 1557.	The French attack on Calais 168
7 Jan., 1558.	Calais surrendered 169
20 Jan.	Capitulation of Guisnes 169
Aug.-Oct.	Negotiations for peace at Lille and Cercamp 170
Jan., 1558.	Mary's last parliament 171
	Financial situation: new duties imposed 171
	Sterility of Mary's reign 172
	Mary's character and misfortune 174
17 Nov.	Her death 175

CHAPTER X.

THE NEW QUEEN AND THE NEW AGE.

17 Nov.	Death of Cardinal Pole 176
	The girlhood of Queen Elizabeth 176
1548.	Her relations with Thomas Seymour 177
	Her position during Mary's reign 177-178
1557.	Personal appearance and predilections 178
1558.	Her religious proclivities 179
	Impossibility of marriage 181
	Her privy council 182
Nov., 1558-June, 1559.	Changes in the administration 183
	Sir William Cecil 184-185
	The financial situation 186-187
	Difficulties abroad 187-188
	Causes of England's apparent weakness 188
	"Sea divinity" and the spirit of enterprise 189
	The catholic north and the protestant south 190
	England's aggressiveness 191-192

CHAPTER XI.

THE ELIZABETHAN SETTLEMENT.

23 Nov., 1558.	Elizabeth's entry into London 193
14 Dec.	Mary's funeral 193
	Bishop White's sermon 193
30 Dec.	English adopted in church services 194
Jan., 1559.	The negotiations at Cateau-Cambrésis 195
28 Feb.	Elizabeth refuses Philip's offer of marriage 196
March.	Peace concluded with Scotland 196
2 April.	The treaty of Cateau-Cambrésis 197
	The religious question 198
15 Jan., 1559.	Elizabeth's coronation 199
Jan., 1559.	Elections to Elizabeth's first parliament 199

	PAGE
	200
9 Feb.	201
20-28 Feb.	201-202
28 Feb.	202
13 March.	202
13-16 March.	202
18 March.	203
20-22 March.	203
22 March.	203
24 March.	204
31 March-3 April.	205
10 April.	206
15 April.	207
29 April.	207
28 April.	208
	209
	209
	209-210
	211
	212-214
	215
17 Dec.	216
	217
	217
	218

CHAPTER XII.

ENGLAND AND SCOTLAND.

1559.	219
	220
	221
	222
	222
10 July, 1559.	223
	223
	224
	225
	225
	226
Aug.	227
Oct.	227
Nov.-Dec.	228
22 Jan., 1560.	229
27 Feb.	229
30 March.	230

	PAGE
March. The Huguenots and the Tumult of Amboise	231
Philip's embarrassment	232
10 June. Death of Mary of Guise	233
6 July. The treaty of Edinburgh	233
The Scottish ecclesiastical settlement	234
Exclusion of foreign influence from Great Britain	235

CHAPTER XIII.

THE RIVAL QUEENS.

1558-60. Elizabeth's success	236
Lord Robert Dudley	237
Aug., 1560. Cecil's despair	238
8 Sept. The death of Amy Robsart	239
5 Dec. Death of Francis II.	240
Aug., 1561. Mary's return to Scotland	241-242
1559-61. Lady Catherine Grey	243
Aug., 1561. Her marriage to Hertford	243
24 Sept., 1561. Birth of Lord Beauchamp	244
1561. Eric of Sweden proposes marriage to Elizabeth	245
1562. Suggested interview between Elizabeth and Mary	246
1 March, 1562. The massacre of Vassy	247
20 Sept. The treaty of Hampton Court	248-249
English intervention in France	249
28 July, 1563. Surrender of Havre	249
Oct., 1562. The plot of the Poles	249
Jan., 1563. Elizabeth's second parliament	250
Multifarious legislation	251
The marriage and the succession questions	252
Puritanism in Convocation	252
The Thirty-nine Articles	252
11 April, 1564. The treaty of Troyes	253
1563-65. Mary Stuart's marriage projects	254
1564. Movement in favour of Lady Catherine Grey	255
1559-65. The Countess of Lennox and Henry, Lord Darnley	255
29 July, 1565. Darnley's marriage to Mary	256
June-July. The conference at Bayonne	257
19 June, 1566. Birth of James VI.	257

CHAPTER XIV.

THE FALL OF MARY.

1565-66. Mary's prospects	258
Darnley's character	258
Mary's changed attitude to Elizabeth	259
Oct., 1565. Flight of Moray to England	259
Catholic support of the Scottish queen	260
9 March, 1566. The murder of Riccio	260
Mary presses her claim to the English succession	261

	PAGE
30 Sept., 1566. Parliament reassembles	261
Disputes about the succession	262
Elizabeth and parliament	262-263
Dec., 1566. Bill to authorise the Thirty-nine Articles	263
Dubious position of the bishops	264
2 Jan., 1567. Elizabeth's reproof to parliament	265
1566-67. Mary and Darnley	266
10 Feb., 1567. Darnley's murder	267
15 May. Mary's marriage with Bothwell	268
15 June. Carberry Hill	269
May, 1568. Battle of Langside	269
17 May. Mary's flight into England	269
Policy of the English government	271-272
Oct., 1568. The conference at York	273
Moray's position	274
7 Dec. Production of the Casket Letters	274
Mary's defiance	275
Jan., 1569. Elizabeth's terms refused	276

CHAPTER XV.

THE CRISIS OF ELIZABETH'S REIGN.

1558-69. Cecil's domestic policy	277
Reactionary forces in the north	278
The rebellious Percies	278
The Dacres and the Nevilles	279
Northern catholicism	280
Mary's intrigues	280
Causes of disaffection	281
Cecil and the landlords	282
Mary and the feudal nobility	283
Oct., 1568. Her proposed marriage with Norfolk	284
Foreign support enlisted	284
Dec., 1568. The seizure of Spanish treasure-ships	285
1568. Philip expels Elizabeth's ambassador	285
Treasonable intrigues of Norfolk's friends	286
April, 1569. Their plot for Cecil's removal	287
May-June. Struggle in the council	288
July. Norfolk bribed with the Dacre estates	289
Aug. A majority of the council favours his marriage with Mary	290
Sept. Support sought from Alva and the French	290
Elizabeth refuses her consent to the marriage and challenges Norfolk to rebel	291
21 Sept. His flight to Kenninghall	291
30 Sept. He surrenders and dissuades the northern earls from rising	292
11 Oct. He is committed to the Tower	292
24 Oct. Elizabeth summons the northern earls to London	293
They prefer to rebel	293

	PAGE
	Delusive promises of foreign assistance 293
	Demands of the insurgents 294
14 Nov.	Mass in Durham cathedral 294
	Mary removed to Coventry 295
Dec.	Failure of the rebellion 295
22 Jan., 1570.	Moray's assassination 295
Feb., 1570.	Dacre's revolt 296
	Defeated by Hunsdon on the Gelt 296
	Extinction of feudal liberty 296
25 Feb.	The excommunication of Elizabeth 296
8 Aug.	Felton's execution 297
	Effects of the papal bull 297
Aug.	Norfolk's liberation 298
March, 1571.	Ridolfi's plot 299
7 Sept.	Norfolk again imprisoned 300
16 Jan., 1572-2 June.	His trial and execution 300
	Triumph of the new men over the old nobility 301

CHAPTER XVI.

THE EXPANSION OF ENGLAND.

	Spain and the New World 302
1527-53.	Early English voyages 303
1553-56.	Chancellor and Willoughby 303-304
1558-59.	Jenkinson in Russia and Central Asia 304
1553-58.	Guinea and the Gold Coast 305
	Protestants and the sea 305
	English greed of dominion 306
	Religion, trade, and politics 307
	Spanish exclusiveness 307
1556-80.	Later Arctic exploration 308
1569.	The Baltic trade 308
	England and Spain in the Atlantic 309
	The development of sea-power 310
	The galley and the "great ship" 310-311
	The royal navy and the privateers 312
1562.	Hawkins and the slave trade 312-313
1564-65.	Hawkins' second voyage 313
Oct., 1567.	His third voyage 314
Sept., 1568.	San Juan de Ulua 315
	English retaliation 315
1572-73.	Drake at Nombre de Dios 315
Aug., 1574.	The convention of Bristol 316
1576-78.	Frobisher's explorations 316
1576-83.	Sir Humphrey Gilbert 317
	Davis and Raleigh 317
1585-90.	Attempts to colonise Virginia 318
13 Dec., 1577.	Drake sails on his voyage round the world 318
June, 1578.	St. Julian's Bay 319

	PAGE
Sept.-Dec., 1578. Drake in the Pacific Ocean	320
1579-80. Drake in the East Indies	321
Hakluyt's labours	321
Effects upon national intelligence	322

CHAPTER XVII.

THE DIPLOMATIC REVOLUTION.

1558-70. Influence of England's expansion upon its diplo- matic relations	323
The situation in the Netherlands	323
Philip's centralising policy	324
1562. Spanish suspicions of Elizabeth's attitude	324
Her ambiguous relations with France	324
The aims of her foreign policy	325
Weakening of the Burgundian alliance	325
Elizabeth's courtships	326
Henry, Duke of Anjou	327
1570. Walsingham's mission to France	327
1571. Efforts to embroil France with Spain	328
Effect of Anglo-French friendship on Mary's prospects	328
1570-71. Scottish affairs	329
1571. Huguenot designs on the Netherlands	330
19 April, 1572. The treaty of Blois	331
1 April. The seizure of Brille	331
June-July. French and English in the Netherlands	332
17 July. Defeat of Genlis	332
Secret aims of Elizabeth	333
Alarm of Catherine de Médicis	334
Unpopularity of the Huguenot policy	334
22 Aug. Catherine's attack on Coligny	335
24 Aug. The massacre of St. Bartholomew	335
Effects of the massacre on English policy	337

CHAPTER XVIII.

THE WOOING OF ANJOU.

Sept., 1572. Proposed execution of Mary	338
28 May, 1573. Surrender of Edinburgh castle by Mary's friends	338
30 April, 1573. Reconciliation between England and Spain	339
21 Aug., 1574. Convention of Bristol	339
1572. Elizabeth and the Duke of Alençon	340
The duke's position in France	341
1573. Elizabeth assists the Rochellese	341
29 May, 1574. Death of Charles IX.: Alençon becomes Anjou	342
1574-80. The French wars of religion	342-343
1577. General revolt in the Netherlands	343
1578. Intervention of Anjou	344
Oct., 1578. Revival of his courtship of Elizabeth	344

	PAGE
	344-345
1579-80. Her attitude towards the Netherlands	345
1579-80. Dangers in Scotland	346
1579-80. Philip's growing hostility to Elizabeth	347
Aug., 1579. Anjou's first visit to England	347
Aug., 1579. Popular opposition to the marriage	347
Sept. Stubbs' pamphlet	347
1580. Prolongation of the courtship	348
1579. Dismemberment of the Netherlands	349
Jan., 1581. Anjou accepts the sovereignty of five provinces	349
Jan., 1581. Elizabeth's remonstrance	349
Aug. Walsingham's second mission to France	350
Nov. Anjou's second visit to England	350
1 Feb., 1582. Anjou dismissed to the Netherlands	350
1 Feb., 1582. He is repudiated by Elizabeth	351
1583. The ruin of his prospects	351
1580. The Portuguese succession	352
April, 1581. Philip crowned king of Portugal	352
1581. His rival, Don Antonio, supported by Elizabeth and Catherine de Médicis	352
1582-83. Philip's victories in the Azores	353
1583. Santa Cruz wishes to attack England	353

CHAPTER XIX.

CHURCH AND STATE.

	354
	355
	355
	356
1559. Elizabeth's policy	356
1563. The vestiarian controversy	357
March, 1566. Parker's Advertisements	358
March, 1566. The first deprivations for nonconformity	358
1567. Secret conventicles	359
1567. The attack on episcopacy	359
1567. The wealth of Elizabethan bishops	360
1567. Charges against Bishop Coxe of Ely	360
1567. Abuses in the ecclesiastical courts	361
2 April, 1571. The Parliament of 1571	362
2 April, 1571. Puritan attempts at reform	362
2 April, 1571. Norton and Strickland	362
2 April, 1571. Peter Wentworth and Archbishop Parker	363
2 April, 1571. The Reformatio Legum Ecclesiasticarum	363
2 April, 1571. Alliance between crown and church	363
8 May, 1572. The Parliament of 1572	363
8 May, 1572. Elizabeth prohibits ecclesiastical bills	364
June. The puritan Admonition to Parliament	364
Oct., 1573. Hutton's description of the presbyterian movement	365
17 May, 1575. Death of Parker	365
17 May, 1575. Archbishop Grindal	365

	PAGE
1572. The first English presbytery	365
1574. Travers' Book of Discipline	365
1576. Puritan efforts in parliament	366
1581. The commons again petition for reform	366
The "Family of Love"	366
1575-89. Executions for heresy	366
1581. The Brownists	367
1559-70. The Roman catholics	368
The exiles and the controversialists	369
1570-71. Dr. John Story and Felton	369
Effects of Pius V.'s bull Regnans in excelsis	370
1571. New treason laws	370
Elizabeth checks parliamentary persecution	370
Weakening of the English catholics	371
1568. Allen and the English college at Douai	371
1574. The Roman missionaries	371
1577. Cuthbert Mayne	371
1578-79. Colleges at Reims and Rome	372
1580. The Jesuit invasion	372

CHAPTER XX.

PLOT AND COUNTERPLOT.

1580. Philip II. as Roman catholic champion	373
Mendoza's activity	374
1581. Walsingham and Leicester	374
Jan., 1581. Legislation against recusants	375
Wisbech castle	375
1582-83. Proposed transportation of recusants	376
1580-81. Parsons and Campion	376
1 Dec., 1581. Campion's execution	376
1581-1603. Persecution of the Roman catholics	376
1582. Parsons' intrigues	378
James VI. and the Jesuits, Holt and Crichton	378
1582-83. Mendoza and Mary	379
22 Aug., 1582. The Ruthven raid	379
1583. Guise's projected invasion	379
Plot to assassinate Elizabeth	380
Negotiations for Mary's release	381
French intrigues in Scotland	381
1584. James VI.'s attitude towards popery, prelacy, and presbyterianism	382
Divided opinions on James in Elizabeth's council	383
31 July, 1585. The Anglo-Scottish agreement	383
James and the English succession	384
1583-84. Throckmorton's and Somerville's plots	384
Jan., 1584. Mendoza's expulsion	385
Mary's captivity	385
10 July, 1584. Assassination of William of Orange	386
Northumberland, Arundel, and Shelley sent to the Tower	386

		PAGE
	The Protestant Association	386
23 Nov., 1584.	Meeting of parliament	386
March, 1585.	The Association legalised	387
	Jesuits banished	387
	Parry's plot	388
31 Dec., 1584.	League between Philip and the Guises	388
1585-89.	The "War of the three Henries"	389
1580-85.	Growing hostility between England and Spain	389
	Expansion of English influence in the Mediterranean and the East	389
	England and Russia	390
1585-86.	Drake in the West Indies	391
1585-87.	Leicester in the Netherlands	392
17 Oct., 1586.	Sidney's death	393
	Mary as Philip's instrument	393
1586.	Babington's conspiracy	394
	Question of Mary's complicity	395
Oct., 1586.	Her trial	396
12 Nov.	Parliament demands her execution	396
	Elizabeth's hesitation	397
1 Feb., 1587.	The death-warrant signed	397
2 Feb.	The council undertakes to carry it out	398
8 Feb.	Mary's execution	398

CHAPTER XXI.

THE ARBITRAMENT OF WAR.

March, 1587.	The effect abroad of Mary's execution	400
	Elizabeth's negotiations with Spain	401
19 April.	Drake at Cadiz	401
	Sixtus V. and Elizabeth	402
	Parsons' exhortations	402
	Philip's negotiations with the pope	403
Aug.	Allen created a cardinal	403
1587-88.	The equipment of the Spanish Armada	403
1588.	The rival navies	404
July, 1588.	The Armada sails	405
	English naval tactics	405
21-25 July.	Fighting in the Channel	406
28 July.	The Armada in Calais Roads	406
29 July.	The battle of Gravelines	407
Aug.-Sept.	Dispersal of the Armada	407
	Continuance of the war	408
1588-89.	Henry of Navarre and the Catholic League	409
April, 1589.	The Portuguese expedition	410
	Cumberland in the Azores	410
1591.	The loss of the Revenge	411
	Changes in Elizabeth's council	411
1588, 1590.	Death of Leicester and Walsingham	411
	The English in France and in the Netherlands	412

	PAGE
1591-92. The siege of Rouen	413
1593-94. The Spaniards in Brittany	413
	Rise of Essex 414
1595. Drake's last voyage	414
27 Jan., 1596. His death off Puerto Rico	415
June, 1586. The Cadiz expedition	415
1597. The "Islands" voyage	416
1586-88. Cavendish's voyage round the world	416
1593-94. Richard Hawkins at Valparaiso	417
1598. Cumberland at Puerto Rico	417
May, 1598. Peace between France and Spain	417
13 Sept. Death of Philip II.	417

CHAPTER XXII.

THE CONQUEST OF IRELAND.

1547-1603. England's attitude towards Ireland	418
	Financial considerations 419
	The English adventurers 419
1547-53. Edward VI.'s ecclesiastical policy in Ireland	420
1553-58. Mary's government	421
	The plantation of Leix and Offaly 421
1557-58. Irish discontent	422
Jan., 1560. The Elizabethan settlement of religion	423
	The native Irish; the O'Neills 424
1560-62, 1566-67. Shane O'Neill; his rebellion and death	425-426
	The Fitzgeralds and the Anglo-Irish 427
1560. Wolfe as papal legate	427
	Richard Creagh 427
	The Roman missionaries 428
1569-74. Fitzmaurice's rebellion	429
1576-78. Sir Thomas Stukeley	429
1579-80. The Spaniards at Smerwick	430
	Desmond's rebellion 430
1569. Elizabeth's second Irish parliament	431
	Organisation of Connaught and Munster 431
1573-75. Attempts to plant Ulster	431
	The Anglo-Irish of the Pale 432
1576-82. The Nugents and the Dillons	432
1584-88. Perrot's administration	433
1584-86. Elizabeth's third Irish parliament	433
1592. Foundation of Trinity College, Dublin	433
1583-86. Plantation of Munster	433
	Spenser in Ireland 434
1588. Perrot recalled and imprisoned	434
1589. Brian O'Rourke	435
1591-93. Tyrone, O'Donnell, and Philip II.	435
June, 1593. Rising of Hugh Maguire	436
14 Aug., 1598. Bagnall's defeat by Tyrone	436
	General Irish revolt 437

	PAGE
April, 1599. Essex in Ireland	437
Jan., 1600. Tyrone invades Munster	437
1600-01. Mountjoy restores English rule	437
Sept., 1601. Spanish intervention	437
Oct.-Dec. The siege of Kinsale	438
Dec. Tyrone and O'Donnell march into Munster	438
Spanish fleet annihilated in Castlehaven harbour	438
24 Dec. Tyrone defeated	438
2 Jan., 1602. Capitulation of Spaniards in Kinsale	438
March, 1603. Submission of Tyrone	438

CHAPTER XXIII.

THE AGE OF SHAKESPEARE.

Literature and politics	440
Painting and music	441
The renaissance and the reformation	441
Shakespeare's politics	442
The patriotic impulse	443
Classical education: Ascham and Harvey	444
Cambridge and Oxford	444
Foreign influences; translations	445
Lyly's Euphues	445
Spenser	445
Sonnets	446
Elizabethan lyrics	447
The drama; its genesis	448
Theatres	449
Christopher Marlowe	449-450
Greene, Peele, and Kyd	450
Shakespeare	451
Ben Jonson	453
Elizabethan prose	453
Tudor architecture	455
The poor laws and statutes of apprenticeship	456
Regulation of trade, wages, and hours of labour	456
Destruction of feudal franchises	457

CHAPTER XXIV.

THE LAST YEARS OF ELIZABETH.

1588-1601. Importance of the year 1588	458
Archbishop Whitgift and "popularity" in religion	459
The high commission and the oath ex officio	459
1584. Burghley's protest	460
Jan., 1586. The Star-chamber decree	460
Oct., 1588-Sept., 1589. The Marprelate tracts	460
Feb.-March, 1589. Parliamentary proceedings	461
Anti-ecclesiastical proposals	462

	PAGE
19 Feb., 1593. The parliament of 1593	462
Imprisonment of members	463
Proposed reform of taxation	464
Quarrel with the lords over money grants	464
Penal legislation against nonconformists	464
April-May. Execution of Barrow, Greenwood, and Penry	465
The recusants	466
1597-1603. The archpriest controversy	467
Oct., 1597. The parliament of 1597-98	468
Social legislation : Bacon's bills	469
Attempts at ecclesiastical reform	470
9 Feb., 1598. Elizabeth vetoes forty-eight bills	470
4 Aug., 1598. Burghley's death	470
Jan., 1601. Essex's rebellion	471
27 Oct., 1601. Elizabeth's last parliament	472
Monopolies	473
Popular agitation	474
30 Nov. The queen's final address to parliament	475
Arbitrary incidents of Tudor rule	476
The Seymours and Arabella Stuart	477
1602-03. Cecil and James VI.	478
English success abroad	478
31 Dec., 1600. The East India company	478
William Adams and the Japanese navy	478
1602-03. Elizabeth's isolation	479
24 March, 1603. Death of the queen	480

APPENDIX I.—ON AUTHORITIES.

(i.) Manuscript Sources	481-484
(ii.) Printed Documents	484-491
(iii.) Narratives	491-495
(iv.) Special Subjects	495-503

APPENDIX II.—GENEALOGIES.

- (i.) The Tudors and their Rivals.
- (ii.) Queen Elizabeth's kinsfolk.
- (iii.) The Stuart and Suffolk lines.

INDEX	505
-----------------	-----

MAPS.

(AT THE END OF THE VOLUME.)

1. The war with Spain, 1587-1603.
2. The principal navigations of Elizabethan seamen.