

Contents

List of Abbreviations	xi
Genealogical Charts: House of Jerusalem and Iberian Royal Houses	xiii
Introduction	1
1. The Language of Illegitimacy in Medieval Europe	22
2. The Carolingian Example: The Sons of Concubines	66
3. Illegitimacy and the Making of Medieval Dynasties c. 900– c. 1050	94
4. Maternal Lineage and Anglo-Norman Succession c. 950– c. 1150	116
5. Canon Law, Canonists, and Bastards in the World of Ivo of Chartres	139
6. Redefining Marriage and Legitimacy c. 1140–1200: Ideas and Practices	166
7. Royal Bastards of the Twelfth Century: The Monk-King of Aragon's Daughter, the Abbess-Countess of Boulogne's Daughter, and Tancred of Lecce	190
8. Illegitimacy and Legitimation in the Thirteenth Century: Pope Innocent III, King Philip II, and Emperor Frederick II	217
9. Scandal in Jerusalem: Royal Succession and Illegitimacy	236
10. Saint Fernando III: The Bastard King of León	254
Conclusion	273
Select Bibliography	281
Index	305